

Gans To Head College Athletics

Marvin Gans has been named director of physical education and athletics at Schoolcraft College to fill a recently created administrative position approved by the college Board of Trustees.

Gans, 35, came to Schoolcraft in 1964 as a full-time instructor in physical education. He was appointed chairman of the physical education department and has been in charge of the college athletic program.

Before joining the Schoolcraft faculty, Gans was a physical education instructor at Franklin High in 1963-64, and was on the physical education staff at Whitman Junior High, Livonia, from 1956 to 1963. He coached the Franklin wrestling team from 1962 to 1964 and was reserve baseball coach at the high school in 1964. At Whitman he coached football and track and field.

A NATIVE of New York City, Gans received his bachelor's degree from Hunter College in 1955, and a master's degree from the University of Michigan in 1958. He received the Ed. S. degree in physical education and athletic administration from the University of Michigan in 1964.

Gans and his wife and three children live at 14808 Auburndale, Livonia.
