Marian Barringer, "Girl Detective," solved her first case the morning of July 4. Hearing someone ajar garage at 5 a.m., Marian peered out the window in time to see three youths leave, cross the street to the Powder house, push the Joe Powder car down the driveway and drive off. In the meantime, Marian roused husband Wally who telephoned the police.

Because of Marian's alertness, the police recovered the car and arrested the three. Mr. and Mrs. Powell's first indication of the loss was hours later when their daughter wanted to use the car and discovered it was missing. At approximately the same time, the Barringers called the sound-sleeping Powder to tell them of the excitement and where their car had found.

BOB HEINZEN of Dundalk Ave. is to sing solos with the Living Rosary Program at the Belle Isle Band Shelter on Friday, July 14. Wife Betty and the older of the nine children will be proudly in attendance. Bob, incidentally, recently completed two weeks of the 1967 Farmington 4-H summer stock production of "Spring Valley Playhouse" in West Baden, Ind.

Many of our Kimberleyites have been vacationing these past few weeks. Jack and Elsie Shear and sons of Piper Lane flew to California for two weeks. After touring Los Angeles, son John and Davidinatural wanted to see Disneyland and Elsie and Jack San Francisco, so they took in Al.

Too Late
To Grow
That Beard

Farmington's hardy corps of beard growers numbers about 25 right now, and if you haven't started a beard by now it's most likely too late.

According to Tom Isley, publicity chairman for the event, anyone who regularly sports a beard may join the contest at any point. "We're issuing just a special challenge to come down and join the contest," he said.

Final judging will take place during the Farmington Founders' Day Festival, Friday, July 28 at 7:30 at the downtown Farmington Center.

Judges will be the current Miss. Ell, Bernice Fry, the Founders Festival Queen and the Mayor of the City of Farmington, William Brothman.

A $50 savings bond is awarded to winners in four categories: reddest, longest, neatest and curliest.

"We have a new category too," Isley said. "Several men are growing mustaches and will be judged."

Registration for the contest began in April. Game starters, if they are game, can register at the Elks Lodge, or at any of these four barber shops: The Korner Barber Shop, Archie's Clip Joint, Ken and Peter's, and John's.

On Dean's List

Robert D. Lorenz, Linda N. Stiles and Stephen Stiles have been named to the academic dean's list for the second semester at Hilldale College.

Sings In Chorus

Laura R. Kahl, 20545 Sugar Spring Rd., is a member of the both choruses at this summer's Meadow Brook School of Music at Oakland University.
