(Kathleen E. Dowling)

Plymouth Church Setting For Good-Dowling Rites

Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Plymouth was the scene of the wedding of Kathleen E. Dowling and Alan A. Good the evening of Friday, June 23.

Mrs. Patrick J. Dowling, is the bride's mother. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gordon Jones of Detroit.

Given in marriage by her brother, Patrick Dowling, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with a cathedral train. Applied Alencon lace and pearl jewelry encircled the skirt and fitted her, and the long sleeves were applied with matching lace and pearls.

A coronet headpiece held the bouffant veil, and she carried yellow roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Richard Clark, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Patrick Dowling, Ellen Dorlie and Kathleen McNamara were bridesmaids.

They wore mint green gowns with print bodices and carried yellow carnations.

Whitley Robinson assisted the bridegroom as best man, and the guests were seated by Warren Harvey, James Grobb and Loren Good.

Mrs. Dowling wore a blue chignon sheath, and Mrs. Jones' choice for the wedding was an aqua sheath with a lace coat.

Sheila Theresa May and Richard Lee Soth were united in marriage in the Cherry Hill Methodist Church, Wayne, on Saturday, June 24.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald May and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Soth, both of Warren Road, Plymouth. A reception at the church followed the rites.

Joyce Soth, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Richard Dethloff, of Plymouth, assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Michele Case Is Wed To Gordon Kisabeth

Michele Case exchanged marriage vows with Gordon Kisabeth in a nuptial mass in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Plymouth, on June 17.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Case, of Morrison Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Kisabeth, of Haggerty Road, both of Plymouth.

Father Francis Byrne conducted the doubling ceremony.

MRS. GORDON KISABETH
(Michele Case)

The bride's white organza gown had daisy appliques and a chapel train. Her three-tiered veil fell from a daisy applique crown, and she carried gardenias and stephanotis.

The daisy applique theme was continued in the yellow organza dresses of the bride's attendants, maid of honor Gail Blystone, of Ypsilanti, bridesmaids Constance Case, Roxann Blazier and Barbara Kisabeth. Their crowns and bouquets were of yellow daisies.

William Taylor was best man, and the ushers were brothers of the bride, Kenneth and Gerald Kisabeth and John and Tom Case. Young Mark Blystone was ring bearer.

A coat dress of lime green overlaid with white eyelet was Mrs. Case's choice for the occasion, and Mrs. Kisabeth wore aqua raw silk.

The couple greeted 150 guests at a buffet breakfast in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Plymouth, before leaving for 35 Smoky Mountains honeymoon. They will live in Ann Arbor.

MRS. EDDY ELLEGOOD
(Mary Ann Feller)

Heirloom Lace Mantilla Accents Bridal Gown

A floor-length mantilla of heirloom rosepoint lace accented Mary Ann Feller's bridal gown when she spoke her nuptial vows to Eddy Ellegood in Nardin Park Methodist Church, Farmington, on Saturday, June 24.

Both bride and bridegroom are teachers in Farmington schools.

Mr. and Mrs. David Nathan Feller, of Montrose, Mich., are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ellen Ward and the late Dr. J. W. Ward.

The Rev. Roy Syme officiated at the ceremony.

Romance crepe and re-embroidered Alencon lace fashioned the bride's gown, which featured a sheath skirt and chapel train. A pillbox, secured the long veil, and she carried a nosegay of assorted white flowers.

Her attendants wore floor-length dresses of blue pink chiffon and lace and floor-length veils. They carried bouquets of pink asters and daisies.

Mrs. Michael Bellows was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. David E. Feller, Mrs. Wayne P. McCormick and Mrs. Donald C. MacGregor.

James O. Ellegood was best man for his brother, Robert, Thomas and Wayne Hubert, and Clyde Kirkpatrick were ushers, and the bride's small niece and nephew, Janis MacGregor and Michael Scott Bellows Jr., were flower girl and ring bearer.

Mrs. Feller was gowned in coral re-embroidered lace for the wedding, and Mrs. Ward wore rose lace.

After a reception in the church fellowship hall, the couple left for a Florida and Jamaica honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Ellegood, a graduate of Central Michigan University, teaches physical education at North Farmington High School. Her husband teaches at Dunkle Junior High School and is a graduate of Wayne State University.

J. Haefner Married to T. Thornton

Judith Haefner and Thomas L. Thornton spoke their nuptial vows by candlelight in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth Friday, June 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haefner, of Hackett Avenue, Plymouth. William Thornton, of Madison Heights, and Mrs. Thelene Hautamaki, of Detroit, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Henry J. Walsh officiated.

A white silk organza over tulle sheath was the bride's choice. It was made with scoop neckline and empire waist, and featured a five-yard train bordered by lace. She wore a bouffant elbow-length veil and carried white lilies and stephanotis.

Kathleen Allison, of Plymouth, wore a mint green empire sheath for her duties as maid of honor. She carried deeper green carnations.

Similarly gowned in tangerine and carrying harmonizing orange carnations were bridesmaids Kathryn Henderson, of Plymouth, and Sandra Haefner, of Garden City.

Bennie Parsons, of Detroit, was best man, and the ushers were Wayne King, of Detroit; Thomas Fitzpatrick, of Novi; and Joseph Haefner, of Garden City.

The bride's mother wore a dress and coat ensemble of turquoise silk and linen, and the mother of the bridegroom chose peacock blue silk jersey.

Roma Hall in Livonia was scene of the reception for 135 guests.

After a Chicago wedding trip, the couple plan to live in Stevensville, Mich., where the bridegroom, a veteran of four years in the U.S. Air Force, is service director with Ashley's Ford.

The new Mrs. Thornton is a graduate of Schoolcraft College.
