

MASS IN THE BACKYARD—The Robert Storks of Farmbrook Drive in Plymouth were one of the first families to have mass said by Father James Machak at his house. Father Machak, the pastor of St. Kenneth's Church, hopes to say masses in the homes of most of his parishioners.

FATHER MACHAK prepares the altar while his assistant, Ed Nowakowski (right), instructs altar boys.

YMCA Camp Has Openings

With the first session in full swing, campers at YWCA's Camp Camell are enthusiastically delving into many new sports and skills. Horseback riding, swimming, fencing, archery, volleyball, soccer, tennis, badminton, camp-outs and cook-outs, varied crafts, dramatics and nature study are some of the activities offered (girls aged 8 to 18 at the camp on Lake Huron just north of Lexington).
Girls from the metropolitan Detroit area pay $70 per session. The first and second sessions are full and there is still some room left in the third session, July 23 to Aug. 4, and in the fourth session, Aug. 4 through 18. Full details may be had at the camp office in the Downtown YWCA Building, 2230 Witherell, or by phone at WO 1-9220.

Two Area Girls Become Airmen

Naila R. Lipp, of Livonia, and Juanita G. Rackley, of Westland, have recently enlisted in the U.S. Air Force.
Miss Lipp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lipp of Jacquelyn Street. She is presently assigned to Sheppard AFB, Tex., awaiting technical training in the air passenger carrier field.
Airmen Lipp has just completed her basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Before reporting to Sheppard AFB, Tex., awaiting technical training in the air passenger carrier field.
Airmen Rackley has just completed her basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Before reporting to Sheppard AFB, Tex., awaiting technical training in the air passenger carrier field.

Attends Conference

Karen Jacobson, of Birchwood, Farmington, will attend the National Leadership Conference of Phi Mu collegiate sorority at the Purdue University Memorial Center in Lafayette, Ind.
She is president of the Delta Pi Chapter at Western Michigan University.

About 400,000 men and women throughout the 50 states volunteer as 4-H leaders and serve as project leaders.

Mission Leader Will Speak

Ford Field Vespers listeners will hear the Rev. Philip R. Anderson, field counselor for the Division of World Mission Support of the American Baptist Convention, speak at 8 p.m. Sunday evening, July 23, at Ford Field, located on Cherry Hill east of Military Road in Dearborn.
The Rev. Anderson is a graduate of South Falls College and of Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He has served pastorates in South Dakota and Kansas and was called to his present position in 1964. He serves the churches of the State of Michigan and Chicago in missionary interpretation. He has toured mission projects in Haiti, Cuba and Mexico.
Ford Field Vespers is sponsored by twelve Dearborn area Baptist churches.

Club Installs First Officers

Officers of the newly formed Western Suburban Junior Woman's Club were installed recently at a dinner meeting in Plymouth.
The club was organized in March. Both charter members and officers were initiated by Mrs. Bruce Van Deusen, southeastern Junior chairman of Michigan State Federated Women's Clubs.
The new club now has 15 members and is looking for women who would be interested in joining. Mrs. Gerald Carpenter, 425-1132, may be contacted concerning membership.
Officers installed by Mrs. H. E. Norris, vice president of the Federated Woman's Clubs, are: Mrs. Thomas McGinnis, president; Mrs. Harvey Phillips, first vice president; Mrs. Gerald Carpenter, second vice president; Mrs. Wendell Ditworth, recording secretary; and Mrs. James Dykeman, treasurer.

Joint Bible School Set

A jointly sponsored vacation church school is being planned by the Livonia Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Pilgrim Congregational Church (United Church of Christ).

The daily vacation church school will start July 31 at 9:30 a.m. and will continue Monday through Thursday for two weeks. The school will be held at Pilgrim Congregational Church, 36075 Seven Mile Road. The Christian Church, now holding its services in Pierson School, is planning and directing the school.

Anyone interested in further information about the school may contact Mrs. Robert Lowry, 201-3004, who will receive registrations until July 28.

Because the parent bodies of both of these congregations are deeply involved in the Consultation on Church Union and in their own conversations toward a united church, it is desirable that local congregations find areas of cooperation, Mrs. Lowry said.

The vacation church school is the first cooperative venture of these two Livonia congregations.

Madonna College Nurse Enrolled In Workshop

Sister Mary Maureen, of Madonna College in Livonia, is participating in a two-week workshop in the theory and practice of nursing communication skills at the University of Colorado School of Nursing.
A total of 51 nurses are enrolled for the course. "Developing the Nurse's Communication Skills I & II" is the Office of Continuation Education Services of the CU nursing school.

Plan Youth Retreat

The Junior Group of Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church is planning a three-day retreat at Youth Island, near Pontiac, beginning Friday, July 21.

Bloodmobile Scheduled In Livonia

A Red Cross bloodmobile will be held at the Northwest Red Cross Office, 31228 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, on Thursday, July 20, from 3 to 5 and 8 to 9 p.m. Donors are encouraged to credit the account of their choice.
Blood collections during the first half of June averaged 268 pints a day, which is far less than the minimum 350 pints needed by hospitals in the metropolitan Detroit area. Each summer blood donations decrease. The need for blood, however, does not. Red Cross officials said.
For an appointment to donate on Thursday, phone 422-2787.

SHARON ARCHER

A ring blessing ceremony was performed at St. Michael's Church, Livonia, to announce the engagement of Sharon Marie Archer to Russell Michael Evette. Parents of the bride-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Archer, of Fairfield Avenue, Livonia. The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Evette, of Detroit. The bride-elect attended Ladywood High School and Schoolcraft College. Her fiancé attended Broadview High School and Schoolcraft College, where she was a member of Phi Theta Kappa. Both will continue studies at the University of Michigan in the fall. A May wedding is planned.

Middle Belt Baptist Begins Using Church

Middle Belt Baptist Church will hold its first services in its new building Sunday, July 23.

The structure, at the corner of Middle Belt and Avondale, in Westland, was designed with flexibility to accommodate the needs of a growing church.

Middle Belt Baptist was organized in 1957 with 21 charter members. The present membership is well over 600.

The church purchased property for the building in 1958 and held services in an old farm house on the lot until 1962 when the first church building was erected.

The Rev. Garret Graham is pastor of the congregation. The church plans a summer revival Aug. 6 to 13.

St. James Sets Bible School

St. James Lutheran Church, at the corner of Southfield and Lyndon, in Redford, is planning a vacation church school, July 24 through Aug. 4.

Sessions will be held daily Monday through Friday for all children from three years to sixth grade, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.
The theme of the course is "Living in God's Kingdom."
Closing program for the school will be Aug. 4 at 7 p.m.

Children wishing to attend the school need not register before the first session.

Ward Presbyterian Plans Teen Week

A week of teen activities is planned for July 24 to 29 by Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church, Livonia.

Activities will include folk singing, bowling, swimming, bon fire, mystery dinner, film and a beach party.
Junior and senior high students are invited to attend. Cost is $2.00 a night for each night, or $2 for the week.
Guest speaker for the week is the Rev. Joe Morone. Further information is available from Ward Church, Farmington and Six Mile roads, phone 422-1150.
