

French Students Late

to visit the United States. After Mrs. Hopkins' cousin returned to France, little more was heard of a possible exchange program until a few weeks ago when Hopkins received a letter from a Father Jammes, in Paris. The letter informed Hopkins that approximately 40 students would soon be arriving to stay for periods ranging from one day to eight weeks. Hopkins appealed to The Observer for aid, and an article published two weeks ago brought him more responses than he had students to parcel out.

"Our real problem was that so many people had to be disappointed. In one case, a French girl who will be here for eight weeks is going to live with two different families," he said.

Altogether, there will be 11 French students living in Observerland for the next few weeks. In addition to the seven who arrived on the Thursday bus, two others will come this week and two brothers will arrive the first week of August.

The eleven lucky American families and their French guests are:

Dr. and Mrs. Sylvain Broadman, of Farmington—Jean-Pierre Boulli.

Mrs. Isabel Billings, of Redford Township—Nicole Chetrit.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyer, of Livonia—Michele DeLorme.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allan, of Livonia—Francis Lubrina.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Banks, of Garden City—Denis Laurent.
