In 1965...

DEE LAWTON (center) was the first Miss Farmington Founders Festival. Members of her court were Vayle Lorion (left) and June Lorimer.

The queen reigns over the three day festival. This year, her duties will include helping to choose the winner of the bearded men contests. She and her court also help to add to the color of the three days.

In 1966...

DEBORAH MANN was named Miss Farmington Founders Festival. Members of her court were Miss Barbara Balsom (left) and Margaret Bogas (right).

The queen and her court are chosen on the bases of poise, personality and appearance. In order to win the title, the contestants must appear before a panel of judges on two separate occasions.

At the end of the preliminaries, the finalists are chosen, and following the finals the queen is announced and crowned during special ceremonies in the Village Green.
