

Brides-to-be In Area Announce Troths

MRS. JAMES K. DYER
(Barbara G. Authier)

Barbara G. Authier Weds James Dyer

Barbara G. Authier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar J. Authier, of Sheldon Road, Plymouth, became the bride of James K. Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dyer, also of Plymouth, in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Norman W. Berg.

The bride chose an A-line gown with lace appliques and wrist-length sleeves. She carried orchids and carnations.

Her maid of honor was Linda Authier, her sister, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Trombley and Mary Buckholz.

They wore light pink chiffon over pink crepe and carried pink carnations with red baby roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Richard Dyer, was best man. David Sordin and Michael Ladish were ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of beige lace, with blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of blue lace with matching coat and accessories.

A reception for 120 guests followed in the church fellowship room.

The couple will make their home in Ypsilanti after a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula.

Both the bride and bridegroom are students at Eastern Michigan University.
