When the Rev. Fred G. Ferris occasionally speaks from his pulpit to members of Judson Baptist Church on the morality of the war in Vietnam, he knows where he speaks.

The minister spent from 1949 to 1962 in such countries as Vietnam, India and West Africa working as a mission trouble-shooter for the World Evangelical Fellowship.

He became international secretary for the group and directed its overseas programs for six years.

He first went to Liberia, West Africa, to make a survey for a mission field in the Cameroons. His travels for a time included two trips around the world each year.

He has known attacks of malaria, arrest by Communists and stark loneliness in dense jungles where he was the only non-native within 150 miles.

He came to Judson Baptist's sister church, Strathmore Judson Baptist in Detroit, directly from Hong Kong.

In his foreign service, Mr. Ferris says, "I was endeavoring to bring about a spirit of cooperation between overseas workers, to eliminate division, to get the job done, which was to minister to the natives."

About his foreign service, he says, "I have a genuine love for the natives of these countries. If I felt that this was where the Lord wanted me, I'd go back tomorrow. And I feel that the Lord blessed us in our work overseas."

"We saw 20 churches started."

The clergyman left the largest Baptist church in Iowa to undertake the rigors of life in countries where even the wheel was unheard of.

Many of his congregation, he says, thought he was "insane," but he felt, "This was a place where we could render a ministry."

Currently he serves both the city church and the Farmington church, which meets at East Junior High. He also conducts Bible studies Thursday evenings at North Farmington Baptist Church.

FOR ABOUT A YEAR, he prepared five messages a week on this routine and notes that "Out here, I had to start at the beginning with such things as 'Who is God?' At the city church, my messages had to be for the more mature Christian."

About this regimen, he says now, "I never knew what it was to have a night off."

He has yet to take on a building program for the local church. Twenty-five acres have been purchased for it (on Middle Belt between 12 and 13 Mile Rds.

The new site is practically more territory to Mr. Ferris, despite his world travels. He grew up at Middle Belt and Grand River and attended Farmington Baptist Church.

He was educated at Moody Bible Institute, Aurora College and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary.

And he and his wife are to be congratulated on the quality of education they managed to give their three children around campfires in the midst of wild jungle growth.

Robert is now teaching in a seminary in the Philippines, and holds an M.A. in theology. Beverly is in nurse's training at Grace Hospital School of Nursing. Marjorie attends the University of Louisiana.

A special music study will be conducted by Mrs. M. Welch as a part of the school's activities.

Nickel was the largest single money earner among minerals mined in Ontario during 1966, contributing $291.2 million. Ontario's total mineral production during the year was valued at $964.5 million.

Kresge Makes Grant To Boy Scout Council

The Kresge Foundation has made a grant of $10,000 to the Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts of America toward purchase and development of the Council's Lost Lake Reservation near Clare.

Announcement of the grant was made today by Robert M. Critchfield, major gifts chairman in the Council's $550,000 Lost Lake campaign.

The Council, with headquarters in Pontiac, brings scouting to more than 11,000 boys and young men in 33 Oakland and Macomb county townships.

The Kresge Foundation gift is the second largest in the Lost Lake campaign, which got under way in March, 1966.

Critchfield said the Council is now at $485,000, "and this, together with other anticipated gifts, places us within reach of our $550,000 goal."

Primitive campaign now is in its second year at the 2,294-acre Lost Lake Reservation.

ROBERT B. ALLEN of Farmington has been named personnel manager of Chrysler Corp.'s Trenton Engine Plant. He holds degrees from Middlebury College and Wayne State University. Allen and his wife, Lillian, have two sons.

Cheese Biscuits

You can add as much as a cup of grated cheddar cheese to a standard 2-cup flour baking-powder biscuit recipe.

Lachmann Resigns

Applications were closed today by Farmington school officials to find a replacement for Kenneth Lachmann, principal at Beechview Elementary School.

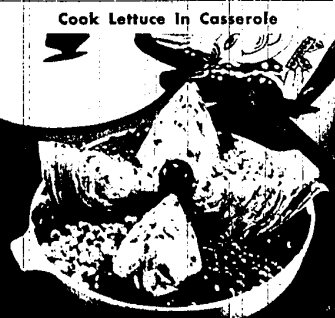

Lachmann has resigned to take a teaching position with the Albuquerque, N.M., school district. He and Mrs. Lachmann and children, Peter, 14; Heidi, 11; and Karla, 9, will leave for the southwest Aug. 10. Lachmann will assume temporary teaching duties in New Mexico because the Albuquerque district has a policy of not hiring administrators from outside the school district. He has not taught for 16 years, but thinks all principals should return to teaching for a time during their administrative careers.

A member of the Farmington school personnel for 17 years, Lachmann first was a teacher at the elementary school on the old senior high site. He was principal of Middlebelt school for 10 years and became principal of Beechview when it was opened six years ago.

Slats Shield Shade Lovers

Does your yard lack shady nooks where begonias, fuchsias, and impatiens can be grown? Why not create your own shade? It's easily done with slat screens and roof built in a corner of the yard, positioned to filter hot afternoon sun.

The shady corner can also be designed to include a potting bench, or a tiny deck can be built into it, creating a secluded garden sitting room. Slat screens and roof are supported on 4x4 western red cedar posts. For screens, just nail 1x2s horizontally between the posts, spacing them a half inch apart. The roof will need 2x6 beams bolted to the posts, with 1x2s spaced across the top, making the sunshade.

Here's a tasty concoction that is economical and easy to make, yet elegant and eye-catching. The colorful combination of spring-green western lobsters lettuce and peas, golden corn and cherry tomatoes is grizzled with delicious butter sauce perked up with onion, parsley and tarragon.

Serve with steak, roast chicken or baked ham.

LETTUCE CASSEROLE CAROUSEL

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| 1 head western lobsters lettuce | package (10 oz.) frozen green peas, thawed |
| 1/2 cup butter or margarine | can (15 oz.) whole kernel corn, drained |
| 1/4 cup finely chopped onion | 12 cherry tomatoes or 6 small tomatoes halved |
| 1/2 teaspoon crumbled tarragon | |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | |
| 1/8 teaspoon pepper | |
| 1/4 cup chopped parsley | |

Corn, rinse and drain lettuce well; cut into 4 wedges. Combine butter, onion, tarragon, salt and pepper in saucepan; saute until onion is tender. Stir in parsley. Heap peas into 2 triangles opposite each other in shallow 10- or 11-inch round baking dish. Heap corn into 2 triangles between peas. Place tomatoes around edge and in center. Arrange lettuce wedges cut sides up over peas and corn. Pour butter sauce over all. Cover tightly; bake in 450-degree oven about 15 minutes or just until peas are cooked and lettuce is hot but still crisp. Makes 8 servings.
