Arching fountains, colored lights, a sidewalk artist and an 18 foot tall Eiffel Tower set the scene for the French Soiree at the Beechview Swim Club Saturday night. Completing the picture were the gaily costumed participants who danced, and were roundly entertained by talented members.

Preceding the party, Ray and Bev Duda had about 40 couples in for cocktails.

Aug. 19 is the date set by Fran and Pat Hernandez for the next affair. A "South of the Border--Mexican" theme. Watch for further details.

THE SWIM CLUB is the hub of great social and sporting activity here. The Ladies' Coffee served every Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. is a regular feature, with Betty Mageau as chairman, and hostesses Mary Foran, Marguerite Wells and Ellen Braun.

Last week's Teep Party was a great success, complete with food, swimming and a band. Aug. 4 is the evening the Junior High group takes over, with refreshments and band music provided, and Tuesday afternoon is devoted to the younger set for the annual Children's Picnic.

Competitively, our swimmers are doing fine in the meets.

In the last encounter against Woodbrook Swim Club, the following members were each awarded a blue ribbon for individual events: Jody Emerson, Craig Cymes, Kim McEachin, Ricky Hernandez, Jeff Hornacek, Laura Shaw, Todd Dolan, Bill Mills, Mark Wagon, Sheryl Bowlick, Lisa Bernadett and Tom Lance. Proud holders of two blue ribbons were: Mark Duda, Lynn Bernadett, Ken Smith, Carolyn Such and Scott Stinnett.

ROBERTA MCCLINTOCK introduced her new neighbor Lou Moore, to our area at a coffee. The Moores, here from Kansas City, are settled now on Wicklow Court, and Lou had the opportunity to meet Marilyn Butcher, Dorothy Sevia, Isabelle Mills, Helen Valenti, Helga Jean, Diane Sherman, Eleanor Mulla, Yvette Zullo, Carol Faunce, Pat Hernandez, Linda Boff, Jill Emerson, Joa Gillette, Jan Dolan, Betty Nicolson, Iva Smith, June Longfield, Betty Mageau and Ginger Dowe.

As for our roving residents, Jim and Judy Burns were in Poland; O, visiting former Kimberleyites Al and Debbie Barsch. Dick and June Rader are just back from Pennsylvania, and the Rudolfs, Audrey and Roy, entertained relatives from Chicago.

CMU Honors Seven Students
