- DRAMA -- RESTAURANTS

Wednesday, August 16, 1967

This is odly

His odly

Hi

In Case You Didn't

WELCOME ALL RACE FANS

Wednesday

Thursday

Your Host, Kev.

Two Big Gala Days of Fun. Dancing, Ente tainment. Good Food and Cocktails,

WELCOME ALL RACE FANS

Captain's

Chair

13098 INKSTER, Jest South of Sci KE 2-0505

erday Matines Aug. 19

One Complete Show at 1:00

OPEN 12:00

"A HARD DAYS NIGHT" ALL SEATS SOE

Wally Roberts

COING CURTAIN

Opera fans should plan an' chestra since Britten has tried immediale pilgrimage to to show his versatile musi-Stratford, Ontario, and the cal hand in almost every pas-Shakespearan Festival. The lasge.

Avon Theater, Stratford's seeOng of the funnicst and ond theater, has been comjey most complex scenes

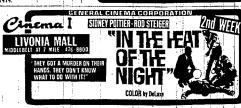

Production

A military comedy of the 1869s, 'Shenandoah' is the fourth production of the 1869s, 'Shenandoah' is the fourth production of the 1869s, 'Shenandoah' is most all Greenfield Village, Performances are given nightly, Monday through Saturday, in the Honry For Museum theater at 8:30 p.m. and submitted in the 1869s, 'In The Henrietta and 'Under the Gaslight,' in repertory fashion. Romance and intrigue form the plot, with the battle of Shenandoah Valley as their setting for this colorful 1868 play by Bronson Howard, Considered the dean of American drama. Tickets for any of the performances by the Greenfield Players are available at the door and no seats are reserved. Adults 31.75 and children under 16, 75 cents. For further information, call '271-1414.

Patronize "OBSERVER" Advertisers!

MINIMUM PROPERTY OF THE PROPER MICHIGAN ADS ATT

PAREMA I TONTINUOUS SHOWINGS DAILY FROM 12:00 NOON BARGAIN PRICE MONDAY THRU FRIDAY 500 TIL 1 P.M.

