

A Pictorial History Of . . . The

WET WEATHER didn't keep the Festival crowds at home. This scene in Downtown Center just after a rain storm shows them happily munching corn, eating pop corn, sipping soft drinks and just having a good time visiting with old friends.

AN UNIDENTIFIED JAYCEE waits to get wet in the Jaycee's Dunk, the Jaycee concession set up in the Downtown Center parking lot. He doesn't look too perturbed about the fate awaiting him. Nobody knows just how many Jaycees took a bousing during the Festival, but the wet weather forced the group to cancel its barbecue on Saturday. Refunds will be made on advance sale tickets if holders will send the tickets to Box 33, Farmington, with their name and address, or by contacting any Jaycee.

THIS YEAR'S community service award went to Mrs. Conrad Lam in recognition of her devotion to community projects. Ron Holland is shown making the presentation to Mrs. Lam.

TWO PUFFS more and this balloon would have burst. The young lad on the blowing end stopped just in time.

LOOKING LIKE a latter day gent, Mark Timins escorted his sister, Kathleen, looking just as old-fashioned, in the Festival parade. Kathleen seems to be thinking about the long-ago Farmington for which she is dressed.

VINTAGE CARS are always show-stoppers. This well-polished model got its share of attention from spectators along the parade route on Grand River.

LOVERS OF HORSEMANSHIP were treated to a good display at the Masonic horse show held Saturday at the corner of 13 Mile and Farmington Road. The Farmington Masonic Lodge also presented a plaque to Township Mounted Police for their service to the community. Worshipful Master Richard Steele presented the plaque to the Township force.

TINY ROBIN WALDIE is almost hidden by a bag, big balloon, which the Sopranoist Club thought she would enjoy holding. And she didn't.

NO CELEBRATION is complete without a guest speaker. State Rep. Raymond Baker filled the bill for the Founders Festival. He is shown at the podium at the conclusion of the parade on Saturday.

EAST JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL rocked with the beat of young feet belonging to the kids who attended FATA's dance for teenagers during the Festival. This combo held its audience enthralled, by the looks of it.
