Registration Is Set For Adult Education

Registration for adult education classes of the Farmington School District will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Sept. 11 and 12 at Farmington High School.

Mail registrations will be acceptable through Sept. 13, but Dr. Jack Cleveland, the program director, points out that all forms must be processed by the administration office rather than the classroom teacher.

There will also be classes in in-service teachers' training, supervised by university instructors. Subjects to be covered are "Psychology and Teaching of Arithmetic" and "Supervision of Student Teaching."

A adult education classes also make it possible to pursue a high school curriculum on a basis programmed to meet individual needs. Each student is able to work toward obtaining a diploma at his own rate of speed.

Persons interested in the establishment of a program in basic education covering a review of language and numbers, may call Dr. Cleveland's office, 478-0810.

A new class this year will be "Hospitality," to be taught by Mrs. Pauline Olm at North Farmington High School. It will teach new ways to make meals more decorative, flower arranging, gift wrapping, the making of fancy tea sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres and petit fours.

Two classes will be offered in Yoga, one for beginners. "Let's Learn to Speak English" will offer instruction in speech improvement.

THOMAS D. MURRAY

Murray Named to Drive Post

Thomas D. Murray, of 31831 Grand River, Farmington has been named to a top committee post on the 1967 Torch Drive promotion team.

Murray, who is vice president and creative director of Campbell-Ewald Co., advertising agency, will head the booklets and manuals committee.

His appointment was announced this week by the campaign's promotional materials group chairman, William B. Bond, advertising manager, the J. L. Hudson Co.

"I am delighted Mr. Murray has accepted this important position," Bond said. "He is a talented executive dedicated to community service; his help will be of inestimable value."

Before joining Campbell-Ewald in 1955, Murray was supervisor of appliance literature for the Frigidaire Division, General Motors Corp., Dayton, O. Earlier, he had worked in the public relations department of United Airlines in New York City. Murray attended Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Va., and the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

He is a past president and director of the Detroit Copy Club and is both a past president and vice president of Birmingham Parent-Teacher Association groups.

He currently is a director of the Wayne County Chapter of the Michigan Society for Mental Health, a Torch Drive service.

This year's Torch Drive will be held Oct. 17 through Nov. 9 to raise operating funds for nearly 200 health and community services.

Farmington Graduates Win Awards

Five Farmington youths have been given trustee awards by Oakland Community College trustees for June graduates of county high schools in 1967.

The five graduates are: Mike J. Ames, 28470 Shadyland; Winona Rosemary Balough, 28459 Alcey; David Walter Hickey, 26653 Westmeath Rd.; Maureen E. O'Connor, 31078 Berryhill; and Brian John Vlaming, 31815 Nottingham.

Miss O'Connor, Miss Balough and Vlaming graduated from North Farmington High School. Hickey graduated upon evidence of a satisfactory performance.

The two girls and one boy, Hickey, will attend the Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington Township.

The other two boys will attend the Highland Lakes Campus at Union Lake.
