HIGH HONOR for Livonia: This outstanding floral arrangement, designed by Jack Smith and his co-workers at French's Flowers in Livonia, captured the most coveted title at the Michigan State Fair when it was adjudged the best in the feature display category. It is a display of dried arrangements with an Hawaiian motif and includes most of the flowers found in the tropical countries. This high honor was one of five won by the French's Flowers' entries during the first four days of judging.

28 Join Staff At Schoolcraft

Appointment of 28 new faculty and staff members for the academic year has been announced by Schoolcraft College Vice-President for Instruction John H. Brinn.

At the same time, Dean of Student Affairs Edward V. McNally announced the appointment of five additions to the college counseling staff.

Of the new faculty members, 13 were hired as replacements for instructors who have resigned, on leave of absence, or who have been promoted to administrative posts.

The others, Brinn said, were hired as instructors for new programs and to staff up its existing programs because of increased enrollment.

McNally said two of the five counselors will replace two staff members who resigned. The three others, he said, were needed to meet increased counseling demands on his staff.

New instructors in the academic area are: John Beckwith and Leo MacFarlow, mathematics; Robert Briggs

Nursery Will Open School Season Soon

The Garden City Cooperative Nursery is preparing to start another nursery school here soon.

To familiarize mothers with the school procedure, an orientation meeting will be held at 8 a.m. Monday, Sept. 11, in the Garden City Presbyterian Church, Middlebelt Road and John Hawk.

Field trips will be part of the school year, and a trip to an apple orchard is planned for early October.

A school spokesman said that many films and speakers will be scheduled for the monthly meetings. "How to Choose Preschool Books" will be shown in October and "Child Molesters" is set for January. "Parent to Child About Sex" will be given in February in addition to a speaker. Dr. Armin Grams will address the members in March.

Persons interested in enrolling their child in the nursery may call Mrs. H. Steinwedel at PA 5-2329 for three-year-olds and Mrs. S. Churchill at KE 7-3238 for four-year-olds.

Diamonds Glitter In Display at Mall

An exhibit in replica of the world's most famous historical diamonds will be on display at the Livonia Mall Shopping Center Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The collection is reported to be the most complete in the world and each diamond in the display is an exact replica of the original.

The originals are valued at over $7 million. The replicas were made originally by Diamond Merchants of Paris, London and Amsterdam for World's Fair Display. They are reproductions of the originals in size, color and cut, including top and bottom casts.

The collection is from the Treasure Chest Collection belonging to the Meyer Jewelry Company of Detroit. It will be on display in the Main mall area of the shopping center during the regular open hours.

Police Nab Hoosier For Bet Forgery

An Indiana man who police detectives suspect may have been involved in cashing over $50,000 worth of forged tickets at race tracks across the country was apprehended here last week.

Identified as Eugene Ernest Miller, 34, of Mishawaka, Ind., by police, he is being held in default of $25,000 bond.

The events leading to his apprehension last Wednesday at Detroit Race Course began when a cashier recognized a forged ticket presented at his window by Miller and alerted track authorities.

Police said that Miller then fled from the window, but was caught by track police. He has been charged with fleeing and publishing a felony.

Livonia police detectives said that Miller matches the description of a person who has previously passed forged tickets at three other major tracks across the country.

The tickets that he allegedly tried to cash at DRG were worth $1,566, police said.
