

GOP Starts 1968 Fund Drive In District

Saturday (Sept. 16) will kick-off the annual Republican finance drive known as the Neighbor-To-Neighbor campaign. Hundreds of volunteers will call on residents of Redford, Livonia, and Farmington during the following week.

Organized under the leadership of Congressman Jack

H. McDonald, Wayne County Neighbor to Neighbor Co-Chairman, and the 19th Wayne Republican District Committee Chairman Delores Kory, the campaign will provide grass-root financial participation for party efforts.

Finance Committee members and chairmen for the respective areas are: David Merriam, Livonia, GA 2-2699; and Lou Wilking, Redford Township, KE 7-9109. Thomas McMillan, 656-5608.

The fund drive, concurrently in progress in other counties throughout the state permits year-round operation of district headquarters and special Republican programs.

The 19th Wayne headquarters is located at 15384 Beech Daly Road in Redford Township.

"It is a nerve center for community action programs as well as information of partisan and non-partisan nature," Mrs. Kory said.

Contributions or pledges can be given to the precinct volunteers or made payable to the "United Republican Fund" and mailed to the Redford Headquarters.

Those persons wishing to assist in the finance drive in their neighborhoods are asked to call the headquarters KE 1-8530 or contact the area chairman.

Alma College, with an anticipated enrollment of 1,250 students for the fall term, begins in September the third year under an academic program in which most students study only three courses during each of three 11-week terms.

The college's new Brucke Residence Hall, with rooms for 210 students, and the new Hamilton Dining Commons will be ready for their first use by students at the start of the fall term.

Meanwhile, work on the college's new Physical Education Building, which features both a large gymnasium and swimming pool, is proceeding on schedule. The building, the seventh major structure to be erected at Alma College within the past 10 years, will be ready for student use a year from now.

Trustees will join Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric J. Bradner at the meeting in which Dr. Max Smith of Michigan State University, Director, Office of Community College Cooperation, and Dr. Harold Smith of the Upjohn will be principal speakers.

Trustees designated Board Chairman Harold E. Fischer, Plymouth, as the official delegate to the meeting, and named Mrs. John Moehle, Plymouth, as alternate. Fischer is president of the Association which was organized last year.

Other Trustees attending are Paul Mutnick, board secretary; Clarke Oldenburg, treasurer; James W. Boswell, Sam Hudson, Dr. George Martin and William Secord.

5 Livonians Join 350 Alma Frosh

Five students from Livonia will be among the 350 Alma College freshmen who begin a week of orientation activities Saturday, Sept. 16.

They are: Mary M. Easton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Easton; Sandra L. Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lester; Edward R. Millson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Millson of 11310 E. Clements Circle; Suzanne A. Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Richardson of 32404 Wisconsin; and Susan K. Simons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Simons of 34105 Burton Lane.
