

Brugman Home In Northville

Laura Helen Weirauch and Edward J. Brugman were united in marriage in a Sept. 9 ceremony in Faith Lutheran Church, Grand Blanc, Mich.

MRS. EDWARD J. BRUGMAN (Laura Helen Weirauch)

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G.P. Weirauch, of Grand Blanc, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Brugman, of Livonia.

The Rev. John L. Heinbeard read the couple's vows.

For the candlelight ceremony, the bride wore a gown of white silk, chiffon and tulle, with a long train and a blue-foot waistline. Her veil fell from a velvet tulle of the valley cluster and she carried a Bible with orchids and yellow roses.

Chromesuspens tulle in a copper glow shade was the material of the attendants' gowns, and they wore Dior bow headpieces and carried yellow mums and wheat.

Mrs. Ruth Smith, of Flint, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Jean Weirauch, sister-in-law of the bride, and Marilyn Brugman, sister of the bridegroom.

Karen Brugman, young cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Michael Smith, nephew of the bride.

Best man was George Brinley, and the ushers were Keith Schneider, Larry Brugman, Jay Ackerson and Dallas G. Smith. A sleeveless jacket dress of Tabitian coral crepe with matching accessories was Mrs. Weirauch's choice for the wedding, and Mrs. Brugman wore autumn green lace with brown accessories.

The reception was held in Paradise Hall, Flint. The couple will live in Northville after a northern Michigan honeymoon. Both are graduates of Concordia Lutheran Junior College, in Ann Arbor.

MRS. DAVID LAWRENCE BORGIA (Ardith Bottrill)

Trip To Bermuda Follows Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence Borgia are honeymooning in Bermuda following their Sept. 10 wedding in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the former Ardith Bottrill, daughter of Arthur Bottrill, of Farmington Road, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Borgia, of Loveland Drive, are parents of the bridegroom. Two clergymen, the Rev. Arthur K. Beimler and the Rev.

William Denny of Philadelphia, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle-length gown of antique satin covered with French imported lace. Her flowers were roses, baby's breath and stephanotis. Her attendants were Mrs. Ronald Masnach, of Northville, as matron of honor, and Mrs. John Schumacher, of Farmington, Marian Richards, of Detroit, Mrs. Achille Bigliardi, of Sunbury, Calif., and Mrs. D. James Carson, of Flushing, N.Y.

All wore yellow georgette empire gowns with accents of deep gold. Assisting the bridegroom were Edson Spencer Rupp, of Royal Oak, as best man, and Robert Washburn, of Ann Arbor, Raymond Chalmers, of Westland, D. James Carson, of Flushing, N.Y., and Richard Bottrill, of Livonia, brother of the bride.

The reception for 275 guests was held in the Mayflower Meeting House, Plymouth. The couple plans to live in Plymouth.

Couple Is Wed In St. Paul's Church

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Cynthia L. Thompson and Richard C. Eby.

A reception for 160 guests in the bride's home followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Thompson, of Livonia, are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nancy C. Eby, of Los Angeles.

The bride chose a full-skirted gown of crystalite with lace, featuring a scalloped neckline and wrist-length sleeves.

Sue O'Dell, wearing a pink linen gown with matching hairbow, was maid of honor. Similarly gowned in yellow, green and blue, were flower girl

Marditte Ammon and bridesmaids Jeanette McHardy and Christine Ammon.

Das Zavadski was best man, and James Hackenberry, Richard Brugel and William A. Thompson, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The couple will live in San Diego, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Marine Corps.

MRS. JOHN JAMES SUPRIC (Diane Fay Pederson)

Supric - Pederson Vows Taken Sept. 9

Diane Fay Pederson and John James Supric exchanged marriage vows recently before the altar of Sacred Heart Church in Dearborn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clark Pederson, of Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Supric, of Dearborn, are parents of the bridegroom.

White linen with veenian lace trim fashioned the bride's gown and chapel train. Her tiara was a pill-box crown of the same lace, and she carried an arrangement of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Her maid of honor, Susan Mac Rae, and bridesmaids, Bonnie Newton, Barbara Egan and Nancy Supric, wore pale yellow empire gowns. Their bouquets were yellow and white daisies with ivy.

Thomas Lackey was best man, and William Whitcomb, Ronald Campbell and Lawrence Pederson seated the guests. Mrs. Pederson chose a dress in aqua silk, trimmed with applique beaded lace, and Mrs. Supric wore a lavender silk dress and coat ensemble. Both had crystal chandeliers.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Continental Congress Inn, Dearborn.

The newlyweds will make their home in Dearborn Heights after returning from a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. The bridegroom is a teacher in the Dearborn school system.

Petunias Popular

The four most popular flowers with home gardeners, in order, are petunias, snapdragons, marigolds, and zinnias according to the Pennsylvania State University.

Penn State has one of only two dozen all-American test gardens for ornamental flowers in the United States.

The gardens serve to test new and established annual varieties for seed producers and dealers.
