

Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Meade and son Ronald, of Cadillac, Mich., recently returned home from a wonderful vacation. While touring Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia, they visited old friends and relatives.

Returning home, another visit was made in Cincinnati, O., to celebrate the 60th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Meade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Swain.

A second son, Gary, a specialist in the supply command of the First Infantry Division of the Army, is serving in Vietnam and is expected home for Christmas.

Mrs. Dorothy Daines, formerly of Farmington, now of Toledo, spent a week in Farmington with friends while on business here. She also visited Mrs. Sylvia Platz, of Freedom Rd. for a couple of days.

GET WELL WISHES go to George Maxwell, of Polkonia. He is expected home from Ford Hospital on the weekend, where he underwent eye surgery last week. He is a member of the Pioneer Golden Age Club of Farmington. Mrs. Maxwell is treasurer of the club.

Last Wednesday, Sept. 20, there were 25 around the table for a pancake supper. Of course they were children from the Plymouth State Home and Training School and our Phil and Faye Sills, who have sponsored so many of these lovely affairs.

The children chosen this time were the working girls which made it necessary to have this affair in the late afternoon.

A grand time was had (as usual) by all. Finishing touches were chocolate cake and ice cream—then the distributing of a large candy bar, gum, water candies and suckers.

The next party will be celebrating Mrs. Faye Sills' birthday. Plans were already made with reservations for Oct. 11.

This will be a first for the children in the Ann Sullivan Hall, which is the building for the blind.

MRS. FRED (Ann) Leach, of 26227 Powers Rd. is ill at this time. Cards of cheer would be appreciated. Mrs. Leach is a former leader of Browne troop 527.

Mrs. Alice Cameron, of 29991 Greening, has been visiting her son David and family, of Warren the past week. She returned home this past weekend.

MR. AND MRS. Claude Getz, of Stockwell, Mich., and their family of five children, Greta, Gwen, Ives, Claudia and Clarence, spent a wonderful week in Montreal, Canada, recently. Enroute home they visited with their former neighbors on Oak Glen here.

PAUL CHARRON, of 26100 Powers Rd., is currently hospitalized at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia in Room 179. Paul underwent major surgery Saturday, Sept. 23. Mr. Charron is employed at the National Bank of Detroit, 11 Mile and Middle Belt Rds.

THE STEPHEN Carters of Sunny Lane, returned from visiting Steve's folks in Baja, Calif. They took tours of Disneyland, Knotts (Berry Farm) and a trip to San Francisco to see the wonderful zoo and its deep caverns where mummified bodies lay encased in wooden boxes; a tour of the Canyons of the way home.

They ran into a snow storm in Colorado, they said. It's grand to be back home with wonderful memories of their vacation for another year.

SUSAN, Gwendolyn and Jacqueline Cooper, of the Upper Straits of Mackinac, spent a few days in Farmington before leaving for their home and their classes at Ferris University.

CATHOLIC PARISHES throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit are currently engaged in the Parish Synod Archdiocesan Plan for the Archdiocesan Synod. The coordinating committee of St. Fabian's Parish in Farmington Township is comprised of (from left) Mrs. George Adams; Sister Mary Berenice; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Malloy; George Adams; and Patricia O'Toole.

Twenty-five years it has been for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, of Quail Hollow, On Oct. 2, Marian and her husband celebrated their silver anniversary. Congratulations!

Speaking of celebrations, Sandy Bates had one just recently. "Happy Birthday," she wrote their silver anniversary. Congratulations!

Much has been buzzed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hasepy, of Peppermill, Elfrist their eldest daughter's had a birthday in August and it was a slumber party.

Last Monday, Sept. 25, Theresa was seven and had a family dinner party. Beth Ann will be six on Sept. 29 and Timmy will be eight on Oct. 18.

Where is more, Jane and Jim Hasepy celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary on the 17th of September—Congratulations to all.

NOTICE THAT balling beam on New Castle. It belongs to Angie Garcia who is on the gymnastic team at North Farmington. Every day you will find Angie and Jan Davis practicing. Come winter, Angie tells her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garcia, that she will bring her beam into the family room. By the way, Angie was chosen as the "Golden Girl" in the band at school.

Laurie Cairns is back to school and is in her senior year at Eastern Michigan University. Laurie is majoring in elementary education and is engaged to Don Pocock, of Detroit. A June wedding is planned. Laurie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cairns, of Bayberry.

Some of the gals and guys from Kendallwood are attending classes at the new Orchard Ridge campus. To name a few: Pat Wagner; Debbie Nostrand and John Mazurek.

Allen Dobzyniak was home last weekend for a visit with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bobzyniak, of Bayberry. Allen is in his last year of medical school.

ST. ANTHONY-St. Gerard Circle had its social meeting last Tuesday. Hostess was Vilca Agesta. This group of gals work at a very worthwhile project. At least 10 of them go to the Northville State Hospital every other month and entertain a group of women in one

Football League Of Farmington Moving Ahead

North Farmington's Mustangs made a clean sweep when they played East Detroit's Mid Jets 6 to 2. The Junior varsity trounced East Detroit's JV's 19 to 7. The varsity after last week's defeat came from behind in the second half and won 25 to 18.

The other half of the South Lower Football League, south Farmington's Rockets could not match the Mustangs' record when they played the Dearborn Mustangs at Dearborn.

The Rockets Mustangs, who have shown power this season, won 27 to 7 and then the JV's beat their opponents 13 to 7. An aggressive Mustang varsity had a resounding victory over the Rockets' varsity of 26 to 0.

All the games were played in ideal football weather. The Mustangs will meet the Dearborn Lions at Ford Field at noon on Nov. 30.

Dr. Smith Speaks At Flanders

The first meeting of the Flanders School P. T. A. was held Sept. 25, with John Schoeller presiding. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Roderick J. Smith, Farmington superintendent of schools.

Frank Delawsky, Flanders principal, introduced the teachers, Schoeller, and the members of the executive board.

Mrs. Jean Hough gave a report on the summer library program which is sponsored by the P. T. A. For the past four summers, the school library has remained open for eight weeks. The P. T. A. hopes to be able to continue this project.

The P. T. A. will sponsor a pancake supper Tuesday, Oct. 24, to help finance the project again next summer.

Antioch Lutheran Plans 6 Sessions

Beginning at 8 p.m. Wednesday, and continuing through Nov. 8, Antioch Lutheran Church, 13 Mile and Farmington Rds. will be the setting for a family-group discussion program will be directed by William Baker, social case worker and coordinator for the Family Service Education Department for Oakland County.

In announcing the series, Antioch pastor, the Rev. Carl F. Kallreider, has said, "Much has been said of the current social and psychological conditions of our society today. Both harsh words and words of commendation have been heard from many quarters on the direction in which we are heading sociologically. We simply maintain that the heart and core of our society today—as in years past—is the family.

OLS To Have Mass For Peace

An evening Mass for Peace will be offered at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 4 in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church.

Set for the South Oakland Deanery of the Detroit Catholic Archdiocese, the Mass will bring to the Farmington church representatives of many parishes.

Sorrows' pastor, the Rt. Rev. Thomas Beahan will be celebrant.

For his sermon, Msgr. Beahan plans to develop thoughts from peace in the community to peace throughout the world.
