COIFF TALK
By DREW and MARIO

What shade should I tint my hair? A common question to hairdressers.

A stylist will first talk to the prospective client. It's important to know what's expected of the color; are we covering gray, highlighting a drab appearance, changing completely to complement her good looks.

A difficult decision, but a professional can help you pick the color that is best for you. Come in to see us. Look at our color selection. Talk to us so we can better serve you.
