Ask For Items For Veterans

The Ladies Auxiliary of Farmington VFW Post 4033, 23414 Orchard Lake Rd., urgently needs used sheet blankets, used yarn and new materials to make lap robes for wheel chair patients at the Veterans Hospital in Allen Park.

Also badly needed at this time are white bath towels, which the Ladies Auxiliary will use to make "bibbs" for hospitalized veterans.

Pick-up for any of these donations will be made by Mrs. Dean Ometlan, Ladies Auxiliary Hospital Chairman. At this time she would like to hear from anyone interested in doing volunteer work at Veterans Hospital. For further information call her at 476-5509.

Janet Lam At DePauw University

Janet Lam, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Lam, 28130 Westbrook, Farmington, has enrolled as a junior for the fall semester at DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind.

The university is beginning its 131st academic year. It is a coeducational liberal arts college with a total enrollment this year of 2,439 students.

Activity Needed For Idle Hands

A person's hands tell as much about him as his eyes or voice. Restless hands indicate an eagerness for activity, while listless hands tell of a person desperately in need of activity.

Both pairs of hands, the eager and the listless, are found empty in nursing homes, hospitals, children's clinics and centers for handicapped people of all ages. These hands desperately need stimulation -- through painting, ceramics, sewing, wood shop, flower arranging and arts and crafts of all kinds.

Who can bring this stimulation to them? Nearly anyone with a little ingenuity, patience and understanding can become a volunteer in hospitals and institutions, where diversional and occupational therapy is desperately needed.

If you are a mother with children in school, a teenager with spare time, a father with long after-dinner evenings, or a retiree, you, and a small amount of talent for working with your hands are asked to satisfy eager and apathetic hands.

Contact the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, the channelling agency for area volunteer services at 642-7272.
