THE PAST weekend was ending in school spirit with the high of many hours of labor put into animated floats interpreting the theme of "Storybook Fantasy." Ten North Farmington High School organizations were represented with ingenious floats—expertly created by amateurs.

The floats paraded down 13 Mile Rd. onto the football field for the homecoming game at North Farmington. Parents and youngsters watching the parade on Saturday must have felt Disneyland had invaded Farmington and wasn't it great.

The junior class float depicting "Moby Dick," a whale with a flapping tail, was awarded the first prize and the senior float, "Puff the Magic Dragon," received the second prize. All of the floats were a great addition to the parade and represented many hours of work and thought—labor of love.

Parents of Mrs. David Yates of Quaker Valley Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall of Forest Grove, Ore., spent an enjoyable month with their daughter, Judy, son-in-law and grandchildren, Nancy and Ronald.

Fire Destroys Automobile On Freeway

A 1967 car caught on fire early Wednesday morning on the westbound lanes of I-96 freeway west of Farmington Rd. and was completely runned.

Shortly after the car began to burn, another car driven by James Funsch, 20, of Brighton hit it in the driver's side door.

Ronald N. Hankenberg, Brighton, driver and owner of the burned car, told Township police that while he was driving the engine stopped running and began to smoke and then caught on fire.

The vehicle became engulfed in flames.

Neither driver was hurt.

Volunteers Honored

Volunteers who have recruited and placed more than 600 girls from southeast Michigan poverty pockets in the Job Corps are celebrating the second anniversary of Women in Community Service (WICS).

They are some 200 workers from the Councils of Catholic, Jewish and Negro Women and Church Women United, all federations of groups dedicated to church and civic services.

"The fact that we are not paid workers but simply are concerned with helping young people, is our strongest point," explained project director, Mrs. Christopher Rameau, of Detroit.

"Many of the girls are so disillusioned with life so far, they think everyone has only base motives.
