

GRAND GARDENS SUBDIVISION

AT CLARENCEVILLE

The new plat is now on sale and from all appearances will soon be all closed out as there is nothing along the Grand River road to compare with it in location, quality of soil or general desirability for a home site. Directly on the car line and the new cement road, with stores, school and churches close at hand and located in a desirable neighborhood it has no equal as a place for a home. These lots are cut into and the initial price is so low that they ought to be snapped up quickly. The price will be advanced as the lots are sold and it is advisable to make an early selection on that account. Prices range from and the terms are made easy. $50 gets a contract when the balance can be paid monthly as the buyer desires. A $10 deposit will secure your choice of lot and when $50 is paid the contract is issued.

Don't make the usual mistake of neglecting this opportunity until the prices advance. Pick your lot now and get the benefit of the advance which is sure to come in a very short time. As an this chance is unequalled for these lots will double in value within two years.

Salesmen are at work on this subdivision in Detroit, but people in this locality can make first choice by making early application.

Salesmen will be on the ground Sundays, but plats can be seen at the Enterprise office in Farmington or the Record office in Redford on any day. All information can be had at either place of

C. E. RAMSEY, LOCAL AGENT or by application to

Seven new street lights have been ordered and we understand that they will be located at the corner of Central and Hartford avenues, on South Hartford avenue and on the corner of Central and Hartford avenues. One also may be located on the corner of Central and McIntyre soon.

Miss Catherine Gottschalk and Thomas Whitefoot of this village were united in marriage Thanksgiving day at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Royal Oak pastor at the Lutheran church and a bower nicely arranged for the bridal party. The house was beautifully decorated and many handsome and useful presents were received. Guests were present from Royal Oak, Bad Axe and Farmington. A beautiful supper followed the ceremony. The young couple will make their future home in this village.

The sum of $208 was realized from the special offering at the Thanksgiving song service besides the regular offerings.

Rev. Dewey Ehle will preach Sunday morning in the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Eosworth are now living in their new home, having moved in this week. Their residence is one of the finest in this section, is modern in every respect and contains all of the latest improvements for comfort and convenience. It is also one of the best constructed homes in the country as every part of the work was done upon honor. Charles Ward was the builder.

Mrs. Mary Wusthoff, aged 81 years, passed away Sunday at the home of her son, Paul Wusthoff, on Mill street.

The funeral, which was attended by a large number of friends, was held at St. Mary's church Tuesday forenoon, a special car conveying the friends from Redford to the church and then to St. Mary's cemetery where the body was buried. The funeral arrangements being in charge of R. B. Northrup.

Sides an aged and devoted husband, Joseph J. Wusthoff, the children who survive are Mrs. V. Baker, Mrs. Louis Miller, Joseph M. and Paul A. Wusthoff.

Mrs. Wusthoff was well known by the older inhabitants and was highly respected.

The very sides of the old Masonic hall bulged out and the building was otherwise subjected to a severe strain Tuesday night, when the pedro party was held there. People came from all directions by automobiles and by street car loads.

A jolly, big crowd of exceptionally fine looking ladies and men came from Greenfield way, led by Wm. Sherwood, who was master of ceremonies for the evening. He made good for everything, went along as fine as silk and everybody had a fine time.

They played pedro at the long tables, short tables, square tables and on everything that was available and there was not an inch of space in the big hall to spare.

Coffee and doughnuts served for refreshments were eagerly disposed of before the party broke up.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Proctor the grand prize of a fine large turkey; Mrs. Bradley of Redford, a big fat goose; Mrs. Lamphere of Redford, a cut glass dish; Mr. Cavern of Detroit, a necktie and holder.

Mrs. Nellie Robertson and John Smith of Detroit, also were rewarded with prizes, but not for skill shown in playing.

Helen Ware Comes Back in "Within the Law"

No dramatic offering of recent years created a more profound impression than did "Within the Law," when it was presented in Detroit three weeks ago at the Garrick Theatre. The theatre-going public not only of this city, but of the surrounding country within a radius of 50 miles realized that this great drama, which had run for more than 500 nights on Broadway, was an attraction out of the ordinary and flocked to see it until the theatre was sold out at every performance. But there were many disappointments for hundreds, perhaps thousands, of play-goers were unable to gain admission. Therefore, the announcement that the producers of "Within the Law" had arranged for an immediate return visit of this gripping drama to Detroit, filled many hearts with gladness, for so much had been heard of the play, its influence reaching even to the pulpits of several eminent churches, that persons who do not as a rule visit the play house were eager to see it. And everyone should see it, for "Within the Law" is undoubtedly the most absorbing play produced on the American stage in the last decade.

The splendid company, headed by Helen Ware, and including Frank Campau, Eugene O'Rourke, Charles White, Emmett King, and 25c for the balance and the Echlin Gayer, George Donnelly, Ray LaRue, Beatrice Noyes, Jean Acker, Sarah Knight, Minnie Gale and others, will again thrill us with their flawless characterizations of types which appeal because they are the prey of laws which are unjust and inequitable. "Within the Law" will be seen at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, for three nights only and a Saturday matinee, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Washington Theatre—Detroit

For the second week, December 1, of the repertoire season of new plays at the Washington Theatre, the Washington players will present for the first time in Detroit a vital, powerful and gripping drama on the burning question of Eugenics, "The Leper," by Geo. Seibel, literary editor of the Pittsburg Gazette Times and the chairman of the moral efficiency commission.

The play concerns a young doctor who is in love with a girl and finds that another man who also wishes to marry her is unfit for marriage. The ethics of the medical profession forbid the physician to reveal anything he may learn of a patient, while the instincts of humanity and his love for the girl impel him to try to save her from such a marriage. The intensely dramatic situation is finally brought to denouement by a young preacher, who refuses to perform the marriage ceremony, and the other man, the Leper, receives the wages of sin.

While there are only six people in the cast, each has practically a star part. Mitchell Harris will play the doctor; Harriet Worthington, his sister; Julie Heene, the girl; Eva Vincent, her mother; Gordon Mendessohn, the preacher, and Charles Ca. Jer, the Leper. The first act of "The Leper" is laid in the doctor's office, the second in the girl's home and the last in the preacher's study.

The new matinee prices, 50c for the first ten rows of the orchestra and 25c for the balance and the entire first and second balconies, has made a decided hit with the patrons of the Washington Theatre. Seats may be reserved by telephone and are held until 7:30 for matinee and 7:30 for evening performance. Hereafter a Sunday matinee will be given at the Washington Theatre at 2:15.

Mortgage Sale

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the interest due on a certain mortgage made by James Heene and Rose Heene, his wife, of Northville, Michigan, to the Northville State Savings Bank, which said mortgage bears date the fifteenth day of April, 1912, and is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Wayne, Michigan, on the twentieth day of April, 1912, in Liber 523 of Mortgages on page 639, and said interest having remained unpaid for the period of more than thirty days after the same was due and payable, the said mortgagee hereby exercises its option granted by said mortgage and declares the principal sum of said mortgage, together with all interest and unpaid charges thereon at this date to be due and payable immediately. There is now claimed to be due and payable on said mortgage for principal and interest the sum of twelve hundred seventy-seven and fifty-four one-hundredths ($1,277.54) dollars, and the further sum of thirty-five ($35.00) dollars as an attorney fee and such other expenses as may be incurred under foreclosure proceedings as provided by law and in said mortgage contained, and no proceedings having been taken in law or equity to recover the same or any part thereof, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the sixteenth day of February, 1914, at 12:00 o'clock noon, at the southerly or Congress street entrance of the Wayne County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for said County is held) which said premises are described as follows, to-wit: "The east half of the east half of the northeast quarter of Section nineteen (19) in the township of Plymouth, county of Wayne and State of Michigan."
