Violist Doktor Plymouth Soloist

Violist Paul Doktor will be guest soloist at the second concert of the season of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

The free concert will begin at 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 19, in the Plymouth High School, Main at Church streets.

Senior Girl Scouts will conduct a nursery for children over the age of two.

DOKTOR WILL perform two works—"Concerto in G Major for Viola and Orchestra" by Telemann and "Harold in Italy" by Hector Berlioz.

The orchestra, conducted by Wayne Dunlap, will perform "A Solemn Music and a Joyful Fugue" by Virgil Thompson. Doktor has devoted part of his musical career to performing as a soloist on the viola, usually heard in an orchestra or string quartet.

Born in Vienna, Doktor came to the United States in 1947 and has followed a dual career in concert work and in teaching at Maaness College of Music in New York.

He appeared at one of Schoolcraft College's outdoor court concerts the week of the Detroit riot, and attendance was held down because of the curfew.

THIRD CONCERT of the season will be Dec. 10, when the Plymouth Symphony is joined by the Piccolo Opera Company of Detroit in presenting Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel."

That will be the only concert at which admission will be charged—$1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Ticket chairman is Mrs. Roger Zerby, 453-1077.

All Plymouth Symphony concerts are on Sundays at 4 p.m. in the high school.

To Play

Seven Observer area students at Eastern Michigan University will play in the school's Civic Orchestra concert to be given on campus Dec. 5.

Farmingington student, John Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Love, 22856 Frederick, will play the clarinet.

Orchestra members from Livonia are Rick Plester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Plester, 20980 Hathaway, string bass; Katharine McIntosh, daughter of Mrs. Jeanne McIntosh, 16135 Bell Creek, cello and piano; Clark Suttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Suttle, 29844 W. Chicago, string bass; and Jill Havswirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Havswirth, 29704 MacIntyre, cello and piano.

Westland residents who will be in the concert include Richard Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebert Morrison, violin, and Andy Trestall, son of William Trestall, 7839 Beatrice, viola.

Hunting can be rugged, don't be a hero. Best when you're wounded. Let the others go ahead. This advice from the Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund agency.

'Eye' Is Vulgar

"Reflections in a Golden Eye" currently on view at the La Parisien and the Mercury asks the naive question: Can a Transylvanian meet a symphoniac on a plastic basin and not anger her homosexual husband when his (or should it be her) attention is rejected?

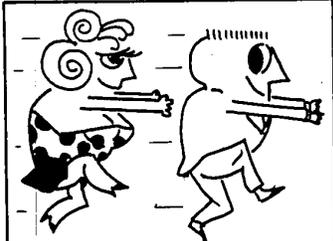

Think about that for a full 10 seconds.

If the vulgarity of it all sweeps over you and suddenly revision sets in, avoid this picture. Stay home and enjoy family life with your children.

However, if you are curious about how Liz Taylor might look running around the house in the buff, what Marlon Brando does to a candy bar wrapper in a highly erotic state, and what significance a naked soldier has riding bare-back in the thick of the woods, this awesome movie is your reel of celluloid. Old Wally felt the movie moved far too slowly. It was apparent from the beginning that sex was going to rear its hoary hydra-head.
