

Tober-Schell Rites Held Oct. 28

Connie Dee Schell became the bride of Robert Earl Tober in a candlelight service Saturday, Oct. 28, in the Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Victor F. Halbooth Sr., assisted by the Rev. E. Westcott, of Redford Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Schell Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tober, both of Detroit, are parents of the couple.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon and lace over taffeta. Pearls trimmed lace scalloped neckline of the lace bodice, and the full skirt featured a lace front panel and lace chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veil fell from a lace and pearl crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of cymbidium orchids and roses.

BARBARA TOBER, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Kathryn Blechaczek and Nancy Trace, sisters of the bride, Lynn Tober, sister of the bridegroom, and Gretchen Steffen, cousin of the bride.

The attendants all wore floor-length brocade gowns, the maid of honor's in gold and the others in turquoise. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow mums.

Charles Deurloo was best man, and the guests were seated.

MRS. ROBERT TOBER (Connie Dee Schell)

ed by Barry Tober, brother of the bridegroom, Lyle E. Schell Jr., brother of the bride, Edward Lapham, and Carl Noebel.

MRS. SCHELL wore a two-piece ensemble of blue crepe and lace, and Mrs. Tober's costume was beige brocade.

A reception for 200 guests at Carpenter's Hall followed the ceremony.

Newlyweds. Make Home In Indiana

Newlywed Lt. and Mrs. L. Dean McVeigh, Jr., are making their home in Indianapolis, where the bridegroom is attending the U.S. Army Finance School at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

They were married in a recent candlelight service in the chapel at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Livonia. Rev. William Whitledge officiated.

The bride is the former Vera Kay O'Dell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merce O'Dell, of Monroe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a short gown of lace over taffeta and a crown of pearls held her bouquet veil. She was attended by Patsy Diane Newsham, also of Monroe.

The bridegroom is a June graduate of Michigan State University, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Dean McVeigh, Sr., of Redford Township. He was attended by Kenneth Michael of Brighton.
