If there were but some gathering each week these columns might be longer. Tuesday, Nov. 7, the Women's Association met at the home of Marie France with more than 25 present. As we were in both the living room and the family room and people were milling about, I am not sure of the exact number.

13 MILE ROAD AT ORCHARD LAKE ROAD

Theresa McKay and Shirley Dalley were the co-hostesses providing the delicious pumpkin pies. During the desert period I gathered the following news items:

LAST WEDNESDAY, Ann and Duane Perry, with the children, drove to Wilmington, Del., to visit Duane's brother, Bob, who has just returned from Vietnam. He had not been well for a considerable part of his 13 months there and was operated on for appendicitis on his return.

After one day at home, infection sent him back to the hospital where they operated again. He is doing very well now but it meant a very quiet visit.
Many of you probably remember Bob's wife, Bunny, and son, Bobby, as they spent a summer here in Wood Creek. The Perrys returned home Sunday.

MARY KAY AGNELLO had 26 of her relatives for a family gathering last Sunday. Dick's brother was of leave from Tri-Service Air Force Base in California. Of course they all wanted to visit with him. Mary Kay served a buffet supper to all.

JEANIE SHANNON, daughter of Marie and Dick France, who has been living here with the Frances' while her husband is serving in Vietnam, flew to Hawaii to be with her husband while he was on a R and R leave. She flew back here Oct. 29 after a very wonderful week.

The Billius have bought their retirement home just five or six miles from Tryon, N.C. They have just returned from retirement there for some years so, when they were on a trip down there recently and found the house they wanted, they bought it. We can look forward to having them with us here for some time, however, I am glad to say.

Had the opportunity to catch up on the doings of the very busy McGrath family. After Marsha's graduation from high school in June she and her sister, Kathie, flew out to Arizona for a visit with their grandparents who now live in Sun City.

The girls had a whirl. Their grandparents drove them around that state and much of California visiting the canyons, Grand Canyon, Bryce, Zion, etc.; they went to Tempanog Cave in Provo, Utah; to Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs to visit Pat's youngest brother and his family.

They also saw their sister, Diane, who became Mrs. David Graham last January, and son, Bobby, as they spent a summer here in Wood Creek. The Perrys returned home Sunday.

The grandparents then drove east with the girls and stayed here until Oct. 1.

Dick McGrath, who received his first force wings at Corpus Christi, Texas, in July is now located in Jacksonville, Fla.
