There are some Star, Life and Eagle Scouts in the Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts of America who most surely will m ke fi . husbands some Boys striving for these three dvanced ranks in Scouting have o pass stringent merit badge ests in various areas of acto pass tests in tivity.

It may surprise some to learn that the two most popular of the 4,723 merit badges earn-ed last year were (1) cooking and (2) home repair. And the cooking was good, too.

Other popular meril badges were camping, swimming, cli-izenship, safety and life saving, in that order. The rank of Eagle, of course in that order. The rank of Eagle, of course, is the highest a boy can achieve in Scouting. Last year, 52 boys in the Council became Eagles.
