MRS. WILLIAM PELHAM (Joan Lee Butler)

Marriage Is Given Papal Blessing

A Papal blessing was bestowed on the marriage of Mary Lattia Rynes and Daniel John Sheridan that took place Oct. 21, in the Basilica of the Assumption, Baltimore, Md.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joseph Rynes, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mark Sheridan, of Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

At a celebrated Mass, the Rev. Francis Xavier Knott, S. J., performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Thomas E. Simmons, rector of the Basilica, and the Rev. Vincent Grotty.

A reception was held in the Statler-Hilton hotel in Baltimore.

The bride, given in marriage

MRS. DANIEL SHERIDAN (Mary Rynes)

by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin and alençon lace, with a chapel-length train. Her long veil was English silk, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white platanopsis, orchids, stephanotis and carnations. The bride's dedication bouquet was of miniature elegance carnations.

Drusilla Beall, of Landover, Md., was maid of honor, and the bride's sister, Mrs. Kenneth L. White, of North Wales, Pa., was matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Dianne Sheridan, sister of the bridegroom, and Joan Gregory, and Susan Elizabeth White was flower girl for her aunt.

ALL THE attendants wore floor length gowns of emerald green tulle; they wore headbands of satin leaves in autumn colors and carried harmonizing bouquets of chrysanthemums, hydrangeas and natural sea oats.

The bridegroom asked his father to be best man. The ushers were Thomas Rynes, brother of the bride, John Blackburn, of Hampton, Va., and Alex Bonner, of Farmington.

THE NEWLYWEDS left for a Florida honeymoon after the reception and will make their home in Rockville, Md.

The new Mrs. Sheridan is a graduate of Villa Julie College, and her husband has a degree from the University of Michigan in naval architecture and marine engineering.
