Will Competition Cure Mail Service?

THE POST OFFICE is one THE POST OFFICE is one of the country's major businesses. It has 700,000 employes, a $6.6 billion annual budget, and a volume of 75 billion pieces of mail per year. It has recently embarked on $100 million automation program to modernize and update the methods.

up the postal delivery problems in the near future," Wilhelm

"THE POST OFFEE Department now has an absolute monopoly on the delivery of letters and other first-class mail. No nee but the government can deliver it. A company which tried to deliver it. A company which tried to deliver it so won mail to its own office in another city would probably be stopped, witheir says, and might be fined $500." "The Post Office monopoly on first-class mail simply is "THE POST OFFICE Depart

"And the important problem is not the organization nor the structure nor the finances of the department, The important and vital need is to get the mails moving rapidly now and removing this drag on our economy.

removing this drag on our economy.

"There is a way the delivery of mail could be accelerated—almost over nightand it would require no additional expenditures, equipment, or reorganization of the department. The method is simply for the Congress to pass a law which would permit anyone to carry and deliver first class mail."
