

Try This Holiday Torte

It's a wise hostess who keeps an ample supply of dairy eggnog in her refrigerator throughout the holiday season. No other beverage fits so well into all kinds of festive occasions, with so little preparation.

Eggnog is a pleasure to serve. It's always ready to pour with no mixing, measuring, or seasoning and, it's a time-saver and a perfect partner for Christmas fruitcake, cookies and other holiday foods. You'll want to use eggnog in other ways, too, like this Holiday Torte Dessert.

Taking a hint from famous Viennese tortes, it's made with multiple layers of cookie and filling. Delicately flavored dairy eggnog makes a luscious filling to sandwich between the cookies. Topping it all is a fabulous frosting made with velvety-smooth whipped cream and vanilla. Delicious...and easy to make.

Plan to serve this delectable Holiday Torte Dessert at least once during the season of hospitality around Christmas time. Delicious dairy foods help make it one of the best desserts you've ever tasted.

HOLIDAY TORTE DESSERT
8-10 Servings

Preheated 375° oven
Baking sheet, 17x14-inch
2-1/2 cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 cup (1-1/2 sticks) butter, softened
1 egg, slightly beaten
3 tablespoons milk
1 recipe Eggnog Filling*
1 recipe Icing

Into a mixing bowl sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder, cut in butter until it resembles coarse meal. Combine egg and milk and add to first mixture; blend thoroughly. On baking sheet roll dough out to a 15x11-inch rectangle. (Use floured rolling pin to keep dough from sticking.) Using sharp knife, trim edges to even them.

Cut dough across to make three 11x5-inch rectangles. Bake 15-18 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool on baking sheet; loosen with long bladed knife or spatula. Place one cookie rectangle on large piece of aluminum foil; spread with 1/2 the Eggnog Filling.* (Do not spread completely to edge.) Repeat with second cookie rectangle and remaining filling. Top with third rectangle. Wrap loosely in foil and chill at least 24 hours. Spread top with Icing. To serve, cut into squares and decorate with red and green candied cherries.

*EGGNOG FILLING

1 egg
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup regular all-purpose flour
1-1/4 cups hot dairy eggnog
1/2 cup whipping cream

In small mixing bowl beat together egg and sugar until thick and lemon colored; blend in flour. Gradually add eggnog. Return all to saucepan; cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thick; cook 2 additional minutes. Cool. Whip cream; gradually fold into eggnog mixture.

ICING

1 cup confectioners sugar
2 tablespoons butter, softened
2 tablespoons whipping cream
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

In small bowl combine sugar, butter, cream and vanilla; beat until smooth and creamy.

Hearings Set On Insurance

A hearing on insurance problems in substandard and pilot-risk areas of the state, particularly Detroit, has been set by a Senate committee for Dec. 15.

Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, R-Waterford, chairman of the committee named to study the problem, said testimony will be heard from citizens, government officials and representatives of business and commercial interests.

Lodge added that he is greatly concerned at the inability of property owners, many of them Negroes, to get adequate insurance coverage.

Electric utility companies cannot generate electricity in advance of use or store it against future demand, according to a Detroit Edison spokesman, but must have facilities available and operating to meet the maximum customer demand for electricity at any instant.
