

TV Star Demands End Of Bombing In Vietnam

Television star Robert Vaughn spread Hollywood frosting on the Michigan Conference of Concerned Democrats with a demand for "an unconditional cessation of bombing in Vietnam."

Vaughn, star of Man from U.N.C.L.E., was the banquet speaker at the day-long session of more than 700 Michigan Democrats.

"We must do this," he said. "We must demand unconditional surrender of the bombing, reconvene the Geneva Conference and withdraw all foreign forces from Vietnam."

MAN FROM U.N.C.L.E. star Robert Vaughn relaxes prior to his address to delegates attending the Michigan Conference of Concerned Democrats in Cobu Hall.

Lions Wait For Next Year — After Loss To Steelers

The chances for a .500 finish have gone out the window for the Detroit Lions.

They couldn't even beat the Pittsburgh Steelers last Sunday before 47,713 fans at Tiger Stadium.

Pittsburgh wound up on top, 21-14, and Detroit now has failed to win in five games—losing four of them—and all that remains before the season ends is a visit to New York Sunday to face the Giants and the closing contest a week from Sunday against Minnesota at Tiger Stadium.

The Lions' record reads three wins, seven losses and two ties—hardly what the team or its fans had expected—especially after Detroit led Green Bay on the first day of the season.

Against the Steelers the Lions fell behind, 21-0, and then made a minor rally. But it wasn't enough.

DON SHY scored two quick touchdowns for the Steelers. Each time he went over from a yard out.

Then a Ken Nix to J.R. Wilburn pass covered 66 yards and the Steelers, led 21-14.

The Lions then rebounded to score when Milt Plum flipped three yards for a TD to Mel Farr and Tom Nowatzke ran three from the three after. Plum had passed 43 yards to Bill Mallonee.

The Steelers settled for a field goal in the final half, but they didn't need it.

Coach Joe Schmidt bemoaned the lack of blocking by the Lions.

"You can't run, if you can't block," said Schmidt.

Owner Bill Ford called the Lions showing "perhaps the worst of the season."

THE LIONS growled over the officiating. Two alleged fumbles by the Steelers were disallowed and Pittsburgh kept the ball each time. Touchdowns followed on each occasion.

Later the Lions screamed for pass interference. The officials called nothing.

Elsewhere in the National Football League last weekend:

Dallas lost to Baltimore, which remained the NFL's only unbeaten team, by a 23-17 score but Dallas still backed into the Capital Division title when Philadelphia and Washington played to a 35-35 tie.

Lenny Moore scored in the last quarter to cap a comeback for Baltimore. In the Philadelphia-Washington tie, Sonny Jurgensen and Norm Snead each passed for four touchdowns. The former made 10 out of 50 attempts for 400 yards and Snead 21 of 34 for 377 yards.

Los Angeles stayed right behind Baltimore, beating Atlanta, 20-3.

A showdown between Los Angeles and Baltimore for the divisional crown comes up a week from Sunday.

SEVEN YOUNG MEN turned in their draft cards Monday at the Wayne County Selective Service Headquarters, marking the beginning of "End the Draft Week" in Detroit. About 75 male and female demonstrators marched around in front of the building for more than an hour before crowding into elevators to reach the Selective Service offices. Local draft boards will undoubtedly classify the men delinquent and order them to report for a hearing.

AMERICAN MOTORS 1968 sedan models have been termed unsafe in the upcoming January issue of Consumer Reports magazine. The magazine charges that gasoline spillage when the cars brake to a stop from 60 m.p.h. is hazardous. AMC claims the hazard is "minimal." Company officials pointed out that the cars exceed spillage requirements in the new federal safety standards.

ALABAMA GOV. GEORGE WALLACE, a possible right-wing candidate for president in 1968 has postponed an appearance at the Detroit Economic Club scheduled for Dec. 11. Club President J.S. Bork said Wallace had been asked to skip his appearance when community leaders said that after the Detroit riots his presence might kindle racial tensions.

PRENENT JOHNSON's name will not be entered in the March 12 New Hampshire primary. Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H., said in Washington that Johnson doesn't want to disclose his intentions officially in March in a state where there are only 85,000 registered Democrats. A slate of Democratic National Convention delegates will represent Johnson in the balloting, however, McIntyre added.

THE UNIVERSITY of Michigan basketball team, led by Rudy Tomjanovich, edged the University of Detroit for a 104-99 victory Monday night at the U-D Memorial. Tomjanovich, a 6-7 sophomore from Hamtramck, hit a fantastic 10 out of 14 shots from the floor as he led Michigan to a 54-51 halftime lead.

THE STATE GROUP named James Pino, Gratiot County Democratic chairman, as its permanent state chairman; Allen Jones as secretary and Maryann Williams as treasurer.

The 19th district group named Mrs. Millie Rowson, of Redford Township, chairman; Allen Sipher, vice chairman for Wayne County; Geraldine McNabb, vice chairman for Oakland County; and Miriam Grinnell, secretary.

The 19th district group will meet Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. in the Rowson home at 2520 Lyndon, Redford Township.

Vaughn summed up the reasons for many of the dissidents: "To me it is a social obligation not to remain silent."

THREE CHILDREN DIED in two Detroit area fires Monday. Both of the house fires were blamed on children playing with matches. Clarence Dickerson, Jr., 4, and his sister Tawonia, 2, were found dead in their Highland Park home. Both parents were away. Lynn Harrison, 18-month-old daughter of Mrs. Martha Harrison, died in a fire at a babysitter's home in Detroit.
