

GRAND GARDENS SUBDIVISION

AT CLARENCEVILLE

The new plat is now on sale and from all appearances will soon be all closed out as there is nothing along the Grand River road to compare with it in location, quality of soil or general desirability for a home site.

Directly on the car line and the new cement road, with stores, school and churches close at hand and located in a desirable neighborhood it has no equal as a place for a home.

These lots are cut into

ACRES AND HALF ACRES

and the initial price is so low that they ought to be snapped up quickly. The price will be advanced as the lots are sold and it is advisable to make an early selection on that account. Prices range from and the terms are made easy. $50 gets a contract when the balance can be paid monthly as the buyer desires. A $10 deposit will secure your choice of lot and when $50 is paid the contract is issued.

Don't make the usual mistake of neglecting this opportunity until the prices advance. Pick your lot now and get the benefit of the advance, which is sure to come in a very short time. As an this chance is unequalled for these lots will double in value within two years.

Salesmen are at work on this subdivision in Detroit, but people in this locality can make first choice by making early application.

Salesmen will be on the ground Sundays, but plats can be seen at the Enterprise office in Farmington or the Record office in Redford on any day. All information can be had at either place of

C. E. RAMSEY, Local Agent

or by application to

Redford

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Union will be held in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 10th. Visitors welcome.

The George Miller place of 60 acres, lying a mile and a half east of the Mill road corner, was sold Tuesday morning.

The Spaller Bros. store building was sold last Saturday to Joseph Dallavo, the deal being made by C. E. Ramsey, Mr. Dallavo bought it as an investment.

Mrs. H. A. Miller spent a few days this week in Detroit, the guest of friends.

Joseph Dallavo made a business trip to Greenville the first of the week.

The committee on the school building is patiently waiting for a promised visit from a member of the Superintendent of Public Instruction's staff. It is thought that some valuable information may be obtained from him that will be of aid to the committee.

Bosworth & Son have an auto mobile delivery and now make short work of carting out supplies that are needed in a hurry from the city.

George Robinson has concluded to stay where he has been living instead of moving into the new house just being completed by Louis Miller on the Miller subdivision. He has purchased and improved the house that he has been occupying.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smye were visitors in Redford Sunday.

Washington Theatre—Detroit

For the third week of the repertoire season of plays at the Washington Theatre "Don," a highly amusing satirical comedy by Rudolph Bjer, which was a great hit at the New Theatre in New York several seasons ago, will be given for the first time in Detroit by the Washington Players, beginning Monday evening, Dec. 9.

The story of "Don" concerns a very impulsive young man, Stephen Bonnington by name who is a species of modern Don Quixote. His principal hobby is helping other people out of trouble and this frequently leads him into serious complications. In a moment of impulse he rescues the wife of a rabid Socialist, after that worthy has beaten her almost to death.

The woman flies to Don in her trouble and he straightway plans to take her to his home, after getting her a room at his hotel for the night. His father, a devoted physician, to say nothing of his mother, is filled with consternation when he arrives home with his charge. Mr. Bester unfolds this episode, together with some highly interesting and dramatic incidents that follow, in three acts brimful of genuine fun and witty dialogue.

The entire play is a delightful evening's entertainment, and one that the patrons of the Washington Theatre cannot help but appreciate.

Mitchell Har is the new leading man of the Washington Players, has made an unusual impression on Detroit theatre-goers. Mr. Harris will have a splendid opportunity in "Don" to increase his popularity. Miss Julie Herne, Marie Louise Benton, Harriet Worthington, Sue Mac Namany, Harry Lennard, Gerome Edwards and Gordon Meadows have been well cast and an excellent performance is looked for.

The Sunday matinees are proving very popular, especially the prices, 50c for the first ten rows of the orchestra and 25c for the balance together with the entire first and second balconies. Other matinees are given Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, when the same prices prevail.

ITS RIGIDITY.

"Is the law against expectation so rigidly enforced in this public place?"

"So rigidly that they wouldn't even let me bring my Spitz dog in with me."

STARTING IT.

"What do you honestly think of me?"

"About the same as you think of me."

"Good As bad as that?"

D. B. U.

(Detroit Business Unit, only)

The oldest and most influential business training school in Michigan is giving today the most modern and thorough course which fully qualify its graduates for high grade positions.

Tuition costs more in this school than in many others, but the results prove it to be the cheapest in the end. Low grade work and cheap instruction are found in cheap schools. The D. B. U. is not in that class.

We invite you to write for our curriculum and to spend six months with us during the present school season.
