POP ART IS featured in a show now running in Ann Arbor at the city halt, A total of 27 paintings and graphic works by 15 artists on the faculty of Eastern Michigan University in Ypailanti comprise the exhibition. As a whole, the show explores the current tendency of American artists to move their work out of abstract expressionism and into the realm of pop. It continues through Jan. 5. The picture above, "Black Monday" by Charles Fensch, is a part of the show.
