News From Briar Hill
From Mann, 626-5946
Again, this year, Thompson-Brown is sponsoring a Christmas Home Decorating Contest which helps to make our subdivision especially attractive during the Holidays. The judging will be Monday evening, Dec. 18, by an impartial group (who do not live in Briar Hill). There will be three prizes and more details in a flyer later.
Mrs. Joe (Nancy) Puzsar, of Banbury, missed the December meeting of the Briar Hill Book Club for a very good reason—she had a baby on Nov. 29—Michael Joseph, weighing in at seven pounds, one ounce.
Nancy's parents had been here visiting from Ohio for the Thanksgiving holiday, so they just extended their visit to keep the household running while Nancy and Michael were in the hospital. Congratulations, Nancy and Joe!
ANNABELLE Moffitt planned a surprise birthday party for daughter Debby last Saturday evening but certainly didn't plan for the terrible weather conditions. Those who were able to make it wished Debby a happy 16th—even though the official date is Dec. 5.
Miss Kelly Emmett will be a year older on Dec. 13 and there will be quite a glow of birthday candles on the 15th from those blowing them out—Mary Ann Cassidy, Danny Skrovan and Ken Hopkins.
SO FAR we've been fortunate—we've missed the big snow. But when they do come, and if they are especially bad, please remember it will help the flow of traffic if we all use the Briar entrance and Ravenscroft as the exit.
Rita and Roger Weber, of Beacree Drive to Columbus, O. Friday, Dec. 1, then on to Athens, O. the next day to visit friends, Sunday, Dec. 2. The lights actually went out at 8:15 a.m. in an area bounded by Halstead, Grand River, Gill Rd. and 12 Mile Rd.
Service was restored in the most western section of the district at 9:18 a.m., while service was restored at 9:49 a.m. for the remainder of the area.
