

Ann Arbor Mass Unites Salans

Helen Ann Zolnosky and John F. Salan were united in marriage Friday, Nov. 24, in a nuptial mass in St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church in Ann Arbor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Zolnosky Sr., of Ypsilanti, and Dr. and Mrs. John Salan, of Birkland Drive, Plymouth, are the bridegroom's parents. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. G. Warren Peck officiated.

A FLOOR-LENGTH medieval period gown of candlelight silk-faced gauze was the bride's choice. The jeweled neckline and short sleeves were appliqued in seed pearl and crystal beading, and her chapel-length veil was held in place by a matching pillbox.

She carried a sheaf of long-stemmed roses. Five attendants wore floor-length cage gowns of copper velvet and matching pillbox headpieces. They carried light copper roses.

Sandra Smith, of Port Clinton, O., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Karen Smith, of Detroit, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Donald Sparks, of Ypsilanti, the bride's sister; and Carol Hewlett, of Detroit. The bride's aunts, Joyce Marie Ploeger, of Carleton, Mich., was flower girl.

Dave Van Hellmont, of Farmington, was best man. Seating the guests were Andrew Salan, of Plymouth, brother of the bridegroom; Vincent Zolnosky Jr., of Winter Park, Fla., brother of the bride; Donald Sparks and Howard Booth, of Ypsilanti; and Donald Swank, of Lincoln Park. Gerald Ploeger, of Carleton, was ring bearer.

FOLLOWING a reception in the University of Michigan North Campus Commons, the couple left for a weekend honeymoon in Chicago. They will make their home in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a graduate of Ypsilanti High School and Eastern Michigan University and is admissions supervisor at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Her husband, a graduate of Plymouth High School and EMU, is in his senior year at the Wayne State University Law School.

16 Timber Types Found In Brazil

BRASILIA -- Brazil's thousands of varieties of wood are spread over a billion acres of timber stands. Only a few of the 16 major timbers are known outside Brazil. They are parana pine and rosewood, a variety of jacaranda. Another wood, freijo, has the English name of Jeanywood.

Other Brazilian woods are acapu, anauera, cabrieva, goncale alives, guajuvira, imbuia, massaranduba, pau-amarelo, pau-mulato, pau-roxo and peroba.

This is when you need an insurance agent on your side

If your home were wrecked by a storm, would your insurance agent be ready to give you the help you need? If he's an independent agent, he's already on the job. He was free to make recommendations from among several fine companies when you bought insurance. Now, when you need help, he serves you first because he owes allegiance to no one company. He displays this seal. Better make sure your man does. As independent insurance agents, we give you the continuing, personal attention you need in insurance protection--The Big Difference in car, home, and business insurance. We'll be happy to give you all the facts about complete insurance protection. Happy to give you service beyond the call of duty.
