Southfield To Hear Harpist

Jacqueline Bartlett, harpist from Birmingham, will be the featured soloist at the annual candlelight carol Christmas worship service held at the Southfield Community Church, at 11 p.m. Christmas Eve. In a beautiful colored candlelight setting, the service features the carol singing by the congregation with emphasis on the message of the carols. Supported by the choir and other special music, the service helps keep Christ in Christmas for those families who attend.

White Gifts Service Set At Riverside

The annual White Gift service of Riverside Presbyterian Church will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 24, in the church on Nine Mile between Beech and Inkster, Farmington. Members of the church are asked to bring non-perishable food gift wrapped in white paper. These will be distributed by the church to needy families as calls come in.

Dr. Harold C. Vernon, minister, will dedicate the white gifts and cash contributions at the service.

The church also plans a one-hour Christmas Eve service at 7 p.m. All families of the congregation and community are invited.

Winter can be a rough time for deer in northern Michigan. When snow becomes heavy in the deer range, these animals band together in deer yards—cedar swamps, hardwood swamp and dense pine thickets.

Baby Shower

For the children of St. Genevieve School in Livonia, the meaning of the Christmas season has to be more personal this year. They presented small baby gifts—diapers, undershirts, booties, rubber pants and blankets—to the infant Jesus during the offering of the mass on Monday, Dec. 18.

The Rosary Altar Society, which directs the presentation of the birthday gifts, said the small items would later be sent to the Catholic Relief Service to clothe needy babies.

BLOOD PRESSURE

High blood pressure is not only a disease, it is also a quick and tragic road to early heart attack. Yet, it is easily discovered by a doctor and is now treatable, says the Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund Agency.

Evangelical Covenant Rites Set

Christmas will be celebrated at the Evangelical Covenant Church, located at 24331 West Eight Mile, with a special worship on Sunday morning, Dec. 24 and with a special Christmas Eve service at 11 p.m. The Rev. Edwin T. Clemens, said the choir will sing two numbers at the morning worship, "Glory to God" by Handel and "Break Forth O Beauteous Heavenly Light" by Bach.

His sermon topic for Sunday morning will be "God Spoke Through Christ."

The Christmas Eve Service will feature special music by the church choir under Leon Anderson, and the Pastor will speak on the subject "In The Footsteps of the Shepherds."

The Rev. James A. Swanson, Associate Pastor, will lead the services and participate in the reading of the Scripture lesson and the offering of prayers. The Sunday School hour will meet as usual at 9:30 a.m.

MANGER SCENE GRANDEUR—The plywood camels stood seven feet tall for the cantata put on by the choir of the Galilean Baptist Church Dec. 18. The shepherd is Gary Ridding.

Farmington Minister Will Join In Vigil

The Rev. Joseph Pelham, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church in Farmington, is one of the sponsors of a candlelight vigil for peace in Vietnam, to be held in Grand Circus Park, Detroit, at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 21.

A committee from Detroit's Catholic, Jewish and Protestant churches is making arrangements.

LEADING IN the vigil are Bishop Dwight E. Loder of the Michigan Area, Methodist president of the Metropolitan District Council of Churches; Magr. Clement H. Kern, Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church; Fr. James A. Macy of Sacred Heart Seminary; Dr. Leon Fram, rabbi of Temple Israel; and Rabbi Jacob E. Segal, Adas Shalom Synagogue. The candlelight vigil will include choral music, the reading of statements on Vietnam from the various religious groups, and congregational singing by those assembled for the vigil.

Similar candlelight vigils for peace in Vietnam are being held in many cities.

Children Of St. Peter's Set Service

The traditional Children's Christmas Eve Service will be held in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Plymouth, at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 24th.

The children of the Sunday School and the Day School will combine with the Senior Choir of the Church in carols and recitations portraying the events of Christ's birth. The history of this children's service at St. Peter's goes back to the earliest days of its existence in 1833, even before its organization.

On Christmas morning, the congregation will join with the choir of the church in Christmas Carol Service, "Praise God, the Lord, yeSons of Men".

This service is a combination of congregational singing of traditional carols, choir solos, and Christmas meditations by the pastor. This service begins at 10:15 a.m.

The public is invited to attend both of these Christmas services.

Regular Sunday services will be conducted on Dec. 24 and 31 at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. A New Year's Eve service with Holy Communion and the installation of new church officers will be held at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 31.

Mrs. Ping To Head Churchwomen

Mrs. Herabel Ping, of Livonia, was installed as the new president of the Livonia Council of the United Church Women at their Christmas luncheon meeting Dec. 10, in Nativity United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Ping and her husband are active members of St. Matthew's Methodist E.U.B. Church, and they have 10 children and 21 grandchildren. Others on the new roster of officers for the council are: Mrs. Elmer Anderson, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Paterson, secretary; Mrs. Lester Morrison, treasurer; Mrs. Bruce McIntosh, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Shaw, chairman of Work; Day of Prayer; Mrs. Wlad of Solenberger, chairman of World Community Day; Mrs. Robert Suppley, chairman of May Fellowship Day; Mrs. Charles McNeely, "Church Women" promotion; Mrs. Olsen Hensley, revisions committee chairman; Mrs. Robert Hider and Mrs. Fred Davis, committee members; Virgil Olson, nominating committee chairman.
