8 Teachers Signed By Wayne

The Wayne Community School District, which includes most of Westland, approved contracts for eight new teachers last week and accepted the resignations of four others. To start their duties at the start of the new term next month will be Lorraine Brown, Jefferson kindergarten; Patricia Evans, Washington kindergarten; Karin Parsons, Norris second and third grades; Janet Pennington, Wayne Memorial High School math; Dana Platte, Tanham first grade; Patricia Roe, Edison fourth grade; William Roe, Schweitzer, fifth grade; and Sharon Wenzel, Wayne Memorial High math. Granted leaves of absence were Roger Williams, Lincoln second grade, and Susan Price, John Glenn High School art. Resigning were Mary Einberger, Edison fourth grade, and Carolyn Job, Norris second grade.
