

Rominski-Andrews Vows Taken Dec. 29

White mink trimmed the wedding gown of Kathleen Mary Andrews when she spoke her marriage vows to Gregory John Rominski in a double-ring ceremony in Our Lady of La-Salette Church, Berkeley, Friday, Dec. 29.

The Rev. Donald Thomas officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Andrews Jr., of Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rominski, of West Chicago, Redford Township.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight Peau de soie gown with empire waist, long sleeves and full train. The band of mink encircled the neckline to the low, squared back.

A crown of iridescent pearl orange blossoms, worn by the bride's mother at her wedding, held the silk illusion veil, and the bridal bouquet was of white roses and variegated holly.

Margaret Andrews, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Lorraine Rominski, of Detroit, and Theresa Thennes, of Gladstone, Mich.

They wore floor-length velvet gowns with white fur headpieces and carried red roses and holly fastened to white fur muffs.

The maid of honor's gown was ruby red and the bridesmaids were in moss green.
