

Stunning Upsets Mark Postseason Grid Classics

It was the day for college football champions to fail, and many of them did in the New Year's Day Bowl classics.

Big Ten champion Indiana University faded before No. 1 ranked University of Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

Tennessee, No. 2-ranked squad, fell to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. Tennessee, No. 3-ranked squad, fell to Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl.

Orange Bowl, Mighty Alabama saw its Cotton Bowl string of five straight wins snapped by Texas A&M. And Wyoming had its 14-game winning streak snapped by Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl.

SOUTHERN CAL got stronger and stronger as it ground the Cinderella team, Indiana, into the ground, 14-3, before a record 102,940 at Pasadena.

USC's O.J. Simpson sliced through gaping holes in the Hoosier line to score two touchdowns and help give the Trojans a total of 317 yards in Indiana's 189.

Indiana's Harry Conso completed a weak line pass in 25 attempts, and the Big Ten team's only score was a 27-yard field goal by Dave Kornow.

OKLAHOMA, No. 3-ranked team in the nation, toppled Tennessee 26-24 Monday night in the Orange Bowl at Miami, but almost blew the game after leading by 19-0 at halftime.

Tennessee's plucky specialist Kari Krenser inflected a 43-yard field goal attempt with only a few seconds remaining that might have given the Volunteers victory.

Tennessee spotted the Sooners three touchdowns but stunned them in the third quarter by intercepting two of quarterback Bob Warmack's aerials and converting them into touchdowns.

TEXAS A&M intercepted three Crimson Tide passes and recovered two fumbles to dump Alabama 20-16 in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.
