Former Plymouth Man Is Wed At 88

Walter A. Scott, 88, former Plymouth resident who now lives in Vero Beach, Fla., was married Dec. 9 to Mrs. Frances Younger Springer, 82, of Rockford, Ill., in the St. Anskar Episcopal Church at Rockford.

The couple has been acquainted 60 years. The new Mrs. Scott was a grade school friend of Scott's first wife, Geneva, who died about four years ago.

The bride, a widow for 25 years, has a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mosher, of Rockford, as well as a grandson and three great-grandchildren living there. The bridegroom's daughter and son-in-law live in Vero Beach.

"I haven't had so much joy in my life for 25 years. It isn't good for a person to live alone."

DEBRA FORSYTH
The engagement of Debra Ann Forsyth to Dean David Johnston, is announced by her parents, Mrs. Olive Forsyth, of Fry Road, Northville, and Robert Forsyth, of Old Michigan Avenue, Wayne. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston, of North Territorial Road, Plymouth. He is stationed at the U. S. Naval Base at Virginia Beach. No wedding date has been set.

Kappa Deltas Plan Film On Child Molester

"The Child Molester", a program which has received high commendation, will be presented at the Jan. 15 meeting of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Sorority.

Members are invited to bring guests to the program, which will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Hayward, 14210 Fairway Drive, Livonia.

The program includes a factual film taken from a case in the files of the Ohio State Police, dealing with crimes committed against children, and presented in a manner that is understandable to both adults and children.

Family Party Fetes Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lueder, of 31707 Hamden, Farmington, celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary with a New Year's Day family party in the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth.

The Lueders were married Jan. 2, 1923, in Dear City, Mich. They have lived in Farmington about 25 years.

Present at the gathering were the families of two daughters and a son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sapala, of Proud Lake, Mich., and their six children; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Flaherty, of Livonia, and their five children, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lueder, of Farmington, and their five youngsters.

Farmington Library Gets Gift

A copy of the Encyclopedia of American Biography, including an article on the late Frank De Podesta, of Farmington, has been presented to the Farmington District Library by his widow, Mrs. Alice De Podesta.

De Podesta was president and chairman of the board of the Paragon Bridge and Steel Co. before his death in 1953. The volume, given to the library along with a financial contribution by Mrs. De Podesta, was published by the American Historical Society and also contains a biography of the late Adlai Stevenson.

The De Podestas had two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Porritt, of Farmington, and Mrs. Gary Sabath, of Cleveland, and a son, Frank J., of Livonia.
