Champs? Who But Packers

The Oakland Raiders were great.
But not as great as the Green Bay Packers who of tod another chapter to their football accomplishments in beating the Raiders, 33-14, for their second straight Super Bowt championship.

straight Super Dow champion-ship.
Ball control again was the big factor for the Tackers fust as was the case a year ago when they beat Kansas City in the first Super Bowl, the Packers and their quarterback Bart Starr held on to the ball to great extents.

never trailed thereafter.

WHEN THE RAIDERS made a run at the Packers in the second period, the Packers forced Ogkland into mistakes, and as uswally happens when a champ forces a mistake, it capitalizes.

About all that the Packers left unsettled after their victory was whether Vince Lombardt would return next season as WILSON HAGEN.

At one stage, the Packers carried the ball on 20 plays to only 11 for the Raiders. The Packers scored the first time they had the ball. They never trailed thereafter.

Chandler licked the first of yards for a touchdown.

MOMENTS LATER, Oakland appeared to have Green Bay in the hole, A kick went to the Packer 3, But the Packers of the ball, it wound up with Chandler making it 6-0 on a 21-yard field goal.

In the second period, the Packers took over on their own 37, on the first play, Starr fired to ead Boyd Dowler who eluded the Radder delense and galloped for a touchdown to make it 13-0.

Oakland was by no means down or out. The Raiders rolled right back, startifier to amonte a most of the landering and the first to the results of the
