Mrs. Nellie Alexanian, of Zulia, Lebanon, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Nakasian, of Argentina, flew east to visit relatives last week. Their first stop was to visit their aunt in Fort Lee, N.J. They are currently visiting another aunt and uncle in New York City before their flight home next week. Nellie and Mary spent seven weeks in Farmington with their aunt, Mrs. Alice Zakian, and uncle, Sarkis Mekjian, of Wilmarth. They also visited their brother, Michael Mekjian, and family of Ulca. This was their first trip to this country.

Mrs. Margaret Collins, of Glenmore, is now feeling much better after a lengthy illness that had her right down in bed for almost a month.

Richard and his wife, the former Joan Mayer, plan on attending Andrews this summer. Mrs. Stumbaugh will graduate from college this year. Mr. Stumbaugh is working on his masters degree.

Miss Jean Ross of Orchard Lake Rd., and her aunt, Mrs. Russell Mack, of Washington, D.C., spent Christmas with Miss Ross' mother, Mrs. Clara Ross of Bay City.

IT'S A FACT...

THERE ARE 70,000 MILES OF GAS APPLIANCES IN OUR HOMES!

THAT'S HOW LONG A LINE THE 121 MILLION GAS APPLIANCES NOW IN USE IN THE U.S. COULD MAKE IF PLACED SIDE BY SIDE - NEARLY ENOUGH TO CIRCLE THE EARTH THREE TIMES.

Project SERVE Keeps Senior Citizens Busy

The winter and spring program for senior citizens, sponsored by Oakland Community College's Project SERVE (Stimulate, Educate, Reassure, Volunteer, Employ), offers a wide range of free short courses and activities.

"Pep Up Your Personality" is the title for programs to be held from 1:30-3:30 p.m., Wednesdays, Feb. 14, 21 and 28, in the Royal Oak Public Library, 222 E. 11 Mile Road, Royal Oak.

Feb. 14 will feature spontaneous speech at which Dr. Mary Haines, of the University of Pennsylvania, will explain how to be an interesting conversationalist.

On Feb. 21, "Know Yourself - Key to Personality" will have Dr. Marvin Hyman, director-psychiatric Institute of Detroit, discussing how one can obtain a better understanding of the "why" of the behavior of others, enabling one to see himself in a new perspective.

On Feb. 28, "Don't Fence Your World" will be discussed by Carl Ingraham, vice president-board of directors of the Family Service Association of America. Ingraham will explain how to replace old interests with new while playing a vital part in the activities of your community.

The three-session program is coordinated by Mrs. Frances Taber, R.N., and co-sponsored by the Royal Oak Public Library.

SENIOR CITIZENS will have an opportunity to produce creative work projects under expert guidance in a Creative Craftsmanship Program, held the first Tuesday of each month, February through May, from 1-3 p.m., in the Madison Heights Senior Citizens Drop-In Center, 39418 John R., Madison Heights. Crafts may be offered for sale in a special Senior Crafts Exhibit and sale scheduled for May 17 in the Royal Oak Farmers Market. Co-sponsored by the Madison Heights Drop-In Center - OEO, the program is coordinated by home economist Mrs. Marguerite Hague.

A Senior Citizens' Newsletter will be developed at briefing sessions on Wednesday, Jan. 17 and 24, from 1:30-3:30 p.m., in the Royal Oak Public Library. A newsletter containing articles and items of interest to senior citizens, job opportunities and master calendar of events for senior citizens organizations throughout the country will be developed under the guidance of Vaughn Hoogasian, assistant professor-communications, Oakland Community College.

Deep Dive

Greatest depth from which treasure has been recovered—using an observation chamber—was 475 feet in reaching the ship Niagara sunk by a mine in 1940 off New Zealand. Of the eight tons of gold on board, 95 per cent was recovered.
