Seattle Poses Test Friday For Pistons

A special treat is in store for all fans attending the Detroit Pistons game with the Seattle SuperSonics at Cobo Arena Friday night.

Each spectator will receive free a glass tumbler, engraved with the signature of all the Pistons' players.

The game also will mark the first visit to Detroit for the Sonics, who along with the San Diego Rockets, are in their initial season of play in the National Basketball Association.

Seattle is coached by Al Bianchi, former Syracuse and Philadelphia guard who last season assisted John Kerr in guiding the Chicago Bulls into the playoffs in their first season of existence.

STANDOUTS ON THE TEAM include Walt Hazzard, the former Los Angeles Lakers guard; Tom Meschery, who starred in San Francisco's drive to the NBA finals last spring, and rookies Bob Rule and Al Tucker.

Rule and Tucker have crashed the Seattle starting lineup at center and forward, respectively.

Two former Pistons also are playing for Seattle. They are Rod Thorn at guard and center Dorrie Murray, the former University of Detroit great.

AFTER MEETING Seattle, the Pistons hop down to Cincinnati for a Saturday night game with the Royals, then return to Cobo Arena Sunday to take on the New York Knicks in the first of five Sunday matinees carded on the Pistons' home court during the balance of the season.

Game time Sunday will be 1:55 p.m. and in the Knicks, the Pistons will face one of the hottest teams of late in the NBA, New York, by winning six straight, has moved from last in the Eastern Division to within striking distance of the Pistons in third place.

Since the Knicks last were in Detroit, they have changed coaches. Red Holzman has taken command, replacing one-time Pistons coach Dick McGuire, now a scout for the Knicks.

In addition, former Princeton All American, Phil Bradley, has returned to action with the Knicks after being sidelined for several games with injuries sustained when he was hit by a taxi, while he was crossing a street in New York.
