

VACATION IN NASSAU — The Henry Sladek family, of 17410 Loveland, Livonia, enjoyed a week in Nassau and the colorful New Year celebration there. Room Dividers Available For Photo Gallery

Does a teen-age daughter crave a room divider that doubles as a picture gallery? Dad can provide one at small expenditure of money or time. A 4x2 Filigree hardboard panel can shield her dressing table from the room entrance and at the same time make an ideal spot for hanging snapshot entanglements, framed pictures or a variety of souvenirs, says the bureau.

AVAILABLE AT LUMBER and building supply dealers, the Filigree hardboard panels can be readily framed in pre-grooved lumber, sold as an accessory. Plungers for completing the room divider make it simple to anchor the framed panel between floor and ceiling. Dad or daughter can paint the divider to suit her wants. As hangers, use Peg-Board hooks or make your own out of wire coat hangers, being sure to paint them, too. Since the filigree panels are smooth on both sides, they present an attractive appearance wherever located.
