

Redford Scene Of Wedding

MRS. GARY BROWER
(Beverly Kiehaber)

Beverly J. Kiehaber and Gary Brower were united in marriage recently in a candle-light ceremony in Aldersgate Methodist Church, Redford Township.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Kiehaber, of Rockland Avenue, Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brower, of Westley Drive, Mount Clemens, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of brocade white satin with a sleeveless coat featuring a cathedral train. Her crown of pearls and crystals held her shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Barbara Jo Kiehaber was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Kathy Branger, of Detroit, Sue Steel, of Mariton, N.J. and Cheryl Russell, of Kalamazoo. All wore cranberry and pink gowns with empire waists and sheath skirts.

The flower girl, Kathy Brower, and ringbearer, Scott Hollebrand, are niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Paul Brower was best man. The ushers were Mark Brower, of Mount Clemens, Sam Elzeman, of Ulica, Ray Bush, of Mount Clemens and John Kiehaber, of Redford Township.

Following a reception at Botsford Inn, the newlyweds honeymooned in upper Michigan. They are now making their home in Kalamazoo.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Western Michigan University and at present teaching in Decatur, Mich. The bride is in her senior year at Western Michigan.

Wonickers Married In St. John

Linda Karen Braun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric A. Braun, of Farmington, exchanged marriage vows with Lt. William Curtis Wonicker, Dec. 30, in St. John Lutheran Church, Farmington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Otto Wonicker, of Jacksonville, Fla. The Rev. Charles Fox officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length white A-line crepe sheath with high neckline and long tapered sleeves of ruffled lace. A detachable train edged in venise lace. An open pill box of lace held her silk illusion veil. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of gardenias and ivy.

Susan Riebe was the bride's only attendant. She wore a ruby red velvet floor-length A-line sheath with long pink roses on puffed sleeves. Her head-dress was a light pink bow with long maine veil, and she carried a cascade of pink roses.

Karl Wonicker of Jacksonville, brother of the groom served as best man. Ushers were Capt. Gary Braun, of Kingsville, Tex., brother of the bride, and Douglas Caher, of Grosse Pointe Woods, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an A-line floor-length pink velvet sheath, and the bridegroom's mother chose a fuchsia dress and jacket.

The reception was held at the Botsford Inn.

The bride is a graduate of Farmington High School and attended Western Michigan University. She was employed as a hostess with Trans-World Airlines, based in Newark, N.J.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Valdosta College in Georgia, served in the Marine Corps, is presently with Naval Aviation in Electronics Intelligence. He has been assigned a tour of duty in Rota, Spain, and the newlyweds will leave for Spain about March 1.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Parisi, of Woodland Drive, Harper Woods, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Louis C. Paluzzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Paluzzi Sr., of Thorny Brae Court, Farmington. A spring wedding is planned.

THE BRIDE DESIGNED her silk shantung gown with white fur trim, and the bridegroom's mother made it. It featured bands of fur on the elbow-length sleeves and at the hem, and clusters of pearls on the skirt.

A single white silk rose with leaves of fur held her illusion veil, and she carried a nosegay of sweetheart roses and ivy.

Kathy Brune, of Kalamazoo, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Sue Pauletta Bates, of Roscommon, and Mrs. Joseph Calhoun, of Northville, sister of the bridegroom.

Their floor-length gowns were rouge red velvet with satin and white fur trim. They wore red pillbox hats of antique satin and carried white fur muffs.

FLOWER GIRL DEBBIE WALLACE had a citrin green dress with white fur trim and carried a nosegay of white sweetheart roses.

Assisting the bridegroom were best man Paul Rehberg, of Kalamazoo, groomsmen Ronald Klassen, of Kalamazoo, and Joseph Calhoun, of Northville, and
