ANN ARBOR--More than a thousand official delegates and special guests are expected at the inauguration of Robbes W. Fleming as University of Sichilary of Sichila

THE FORMAL inauguration in Hill Auditorium will be open to university students and faculty with tickets as well as to the official delegates and invited juests.

More than 1,800 colleges and universities all over the world are being invited to send delegates to the inauguration, Experience at other institutions indicates that 400 to 600 will actually be represented, according to Herbert W. Hildebrandt, secretary of the university and vice chalrman of the inauguration committee.

THE INAUGURATION itself is scheduled for 3 p.m., after an informal reception and function. A reception for President and Mrs. Fleming will follow the ceremony.

Highlight of the day will be Fleming's inaugural address, in which he is expected to set forth his own educational philosophy and chart the course he expects the university to take in years ahead.
