HUNTINGTON CLUB APARTMENTS, at Ann Arbor Trail and Merriman Road, offer all the advantages of modern living in one and two-bedroom facilities. Westland and Wonderland Shopping Centers, Edward Hines Parkway and major freeways are only minutes away.

Huntington Club Offers Plush, Modern Living

The show opens shortly before noon Saturday, Feb. 17 and will run through Sunday, Feb. 25. The $20,000 prize, largest cash award of any exhibition in the country, will be given to the person who most nearly estimates the number of existing plastic model houses, now on display in the main lobby area of the First Federal Building, Woodward at Michigan Ave.

The House of Nails will be moved to Cobb Hall the day of the opening and remain there until the day after the closing, when it will be opened, the nails counted and the $20,000 cash prize awarded.

Appealing to those who would choose the avant garde way of life, Huntington Club Apartments translates a dream into reality.

Located at the hub of Westland on Ann Arbor Trail and Merriman, Huntington Club Apartments serve as the focal point for all major shopping and commercial centers, Westland, Wonderland, Edward Hines Park and major freeways are only minutes away.

Residents of Huntington Club Apartments will live in either one or two bedroom apartments. They enjoy such unique features as a private balcony bedroom overlooking the spacious living room and a panorama view of the landscaped private courtyard.

Other desirable Huntington Club features include ample private parking directly behind a private rear entrance, built-in air conditioning, beautifully appointed kitchens equipped with colorful Hotpoint range, oven, disposal, giant twin-door refrigerator, Formica counters with Teakite furniture-finished cabinets, custom draperies and carpeting, beamed ceilings and two large private storage rooms.
