UP' GOING 'CURTAIN'

The moon came up like a big pizza pie last week at the Bonstelle Theater as the Wayne State Players presented a witty, zesty production of Tennessee Williams' "The Rose Tattoo".

Barbara Ann LaRou and Robert Roberts, the fiery Italian lovers battled and bristled their way through a wild love affair that fairly bursts with the juice of life. The Seltzer temper and emotional fervor of the "Rose Tattoo" was carefully captured by their talented pair and earned them dual kudos.

Old Wally saw Maureen Stapleton in the original role back in 1952. Miss LaRou's performance evoked fond memories and made the evening ring in nostalgia. Truly, a marvelous performance on Miss LaRou's part.

RUSS SMITH provided a stage setting that dripped Southern charm. It was as contagious as the acting. It was a beautiful example of how professional the Bonstelle productions always are.

"SNOW WHITE and The Three Stooges" will inaugurate the weekly series of Saturday kiddie matinees at the Livonia Cinema Theatre. Doors open at noon and the programs start at 12:30 p.m. There will be only one complete showing each Saturday.

'Four Seasons' To Head U-D Pop Program

The Four Seasons, one of the few groups with "permanent status" in the pop field, come to the University of Detroit Memorial Building in concert at 8:30 p.m. on Friday Feb. 23.

Their hit songs started with "Sherry" and range on up through "Mary Jane", "Candy Girl", "Dawn" and the current Frankie Valli, single, "To Give."

On Screen At Ford Museum

They are only shadows...but what memorable shadows. Floating before Sunday afternoon audiences during the next several weeks will come the shadows of Laurel and Hardy, Lillian Gish, Buster Crabbe, Pearl White, Lon Chaney and many more film greats of the movie's silent and early talking era.

They will appear on screen in the Henry Ford Museum theater at Greenfield Village as part of the Spring season presentations in the Museum's Famous Early Movie program.

During the season 18 beloved old movies will flicker to life again, a dozen showing for the first time in the Museum's 17-year-old series.

The 2 and 4 p.m. showings will begin Feb. 25, but before that date two related theater events will begin at the same hours on Feb. 11 and 18.

Italian Film

"The Organizer," a 1964 Italian film that provided Marcello Mastroianni with perhaps his greatest character role, will be presented at the Schoolcraft College Forum on the Winter Film Series, on Friday night, Feb. 9 at 8:30 p.m. As with all Winter Series films, there is no admission charge.

Balalaika Concert Set

The Russian Club of Thurston High School is sponsoring a concert by the Detroit Balalaika Orchestra on Friday night, Feb. 9, in the Thurston High auditorium.

Proceeds of this concert will go to build a scholarship fund for Russian students at Thurston who are planning to continue their study of Russian in college.

This Balalaika orchestra is the only one of its kind in the state of Michigan and was developed by members of the Balalaika orchestra which used to play in the old Russian Bear restaurant in the basement of the Fox Theatre building.
