

Thurston Grapplers Move Up

Up, up the ladder goes the Thurston high wrestling team. After scoring two more victories last week, Thurston jumped from fifth to third in the state prep rankings. Only Pontiac Northern and Lansing Eastern top the Townshipers.

Thurston outdistanced Garden City East, 28-14, last Tuesday in a battle of the unbeaten and then swamped North Farmington, 30-12.

East had a record of eight wins and one tie until stopped by Thurston, which now stands 9-0 in dual competition this season.

Chet Proctor and Bob Bryant each remained unbeaten for Thurston. Proctor competes in the heavyweight class, Bryant at 180 pounds. Both scored two more triumphs last week.

The results:

THURSTON 12, G. C. EAST 14
 94 pounds—Kerr (15) dec. Miller.

Collegians Win In Swim Meet

Schoolcraft College's swimming team squeezed past Jackson Community College, 47-46, thanks to a double victory by Dane Trembath who captured the individual medley and 200-yard breast stroke.

Don Gortlitz won the 50-yard free, Larry Bars the diving and the 400-yard freestyle to account for the other Schoolcraft victories.

Pistons' Bing Locks With Bullets' Star

"Make Way for Youth..." or "Youth Must Be Served."

How true In the National Basketball Association as fans will see Saturday night when the Detroit Pistons engage the Baltimore Bullets at Cobo Arena. The young have crowded into the spotlight on both teams as they battle in the Eastern Division's heated race for playoff honors.

On the Pistons' side there are such professional cage "babies" as Dave Bing (in his second year), Joe Sawder (third year) and rookies Jimmy Walker and Sonny Dove.

Baltimore, meantime, "counters" with Earl (the Pearl) Monroe, the No. 1 candidate for rookie-of-the-year honors this season; Stan McKenzie and Ed Manning, two more freshmen; and Jack Marin, a third-year performer.
