3 International Musical Groups Head Festival

ANN ARBOR -- The 28th annual Chamber Music Festival will bring three international musical groups to the campus of the University of Michigan this month. The concerts will be Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Feb. 16, 17, and 18, in Rackham Auditorium, under the auspices of the University Musical Society.

The Loewenguth Quartet, from France, will offer a program of string quartets at 8:30 p.m. Feb. 16, 17, and 18, Poland's Warsaw Chamber Orchestra, with Wanda Wilkomska as violin soloist, will play at 8:30 p.m. Feb. 17. The Early Music Quartet, from Germany, will be heard at 2:30 p.m. Feb. 18.

C.W. TRUXELL, general manager of Detroit Diesel Engine Division, proudly inspects the division's one-millionth engine. Helping in this pleasant task is James F. Albrecht (right) divisional training manager who took delivery on the milestone engine. The engine itself is the first production model of the division's new series of high horsepower engines known as the 12V-149 and is capable of producing 1000 horsepower in portable and mobile applications.
