

Wallace Runs For President

WASHINGTON -- George C. Wallace, former governor of Alabama, has announced that he will seek the presidency of the United States and said he "will run to win." Wallace, 48, admitted that "certainly the odds have not been fully in favor of third party movements" in the United States.

COLUMBUS -- Bars, suspended seven feet above the deck of the Chester Bridge, which crosses the Ohio River, were installed by the Ohio and West Virginia departments of highways in an attempt to keep vehicles over 5,000 pounds off the span. Deterioration in the main cables on the Ohio side of the suspension bridge between East Liverpool, O., and Chester, W. Va., was discovered about two weeks ago.

ATLANTA -- Snow fell on such unlikely places as central Florida and south Georgia Thursday prompting the U.S.

NATIONAL ROUNDUP

Weather Bureau to caution motorists to keep their eyes on the road and not on the scenery. The 3.3 inches at Savannah was the heaviest there since the 1870's.

LOS ANGELES -- Actor Nick Adams, who used to be Johnny Yuma in a television series, was found dead in his upstairs bedroom of his home, apparently after taking the drug paralytic the Los Angeles coroner's office said Friday.

LINCOLN, Neb. -- Three major railroads conducted restricted operations under strike conditions Thursday as a federal court restraining order prevented the walkout from spreading to a fourth road, the Union Pacific. Already struck are the Missouri Pacific lines, its subsidiary the Texas & Pacific and the Seaboard Coast Line.

CHICAGO -- The number killed by a fire and explosion at a sausage plant increased to eight with the deaths of two of the 76 injured. Earlier Thursday, workers at the flat-topped Muehleberg's Sausage Co. plant on the south side uncovered the body of the firm's president, Roy R. Laidley, 63.

NEW YORK -- Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has set up a special mediation panel and ordered it to return with its solution to the west-end sanitation union's strike. Holding in abeyance any National Guard takeover, the governor put the five-man panel to work immediately to resolve the crisis in New York, a city festering beneath 60,000 tons of garbage.

COLUMBUS -- Ohio State University trustees Thursday approved establishment of a school of natural resources at the university, effective next July 1. The new school is to be part of the college of agriculture and home economics and will bring together various campus groups interested in forming professionally oriented programs of instruction, research and extension in natural resources.
