

GOP Target: The Uncommitted Vote

The uncommitted vote, . . . the so-called independent who's really ineffective. . . the man without conviction. . . These should be the target of Republican workers in 1968, said Raymond V. Humphreys, Isabella Daughters director of education and training for the Republican National Committee, in a Plymouth speech last week.

Humphreys told a Republican Lincoln Day banquet audience in the Wayne County portion of the 2nd Congressional District that the county has a huge block of non-voters who should be tapped.

Wig Show Set For Welcome Wagon Group

A wig show will highlight the regular monthly meeting of the Welcome Wagon Club of Livonia at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 12, in the cafeteria of Stevenson High School.

All members are urged to attend and new residents are especially invited. Reservations are required and may be obtained by calling the membership chairman, Mrs. Ann Kiet, at 421-3975.

The hairpiece demonstration will be put on in a local store. Refreshments will also be served.

Members are also reminded to bring in their ticket receipts for the group's charity style show to be held next month.

and 260 non-voters; in 1964 it had 617 voters and 362 non-voters, and in the 1966 gubernatorial race, it had only 436 voters and a whopping 569 non-voters—nearly three-fifths of the eligible population not going to the polls.

"The thing you and I need to do is not hunt up the Democrats and argue with them. We've got to get to the uncommitted and get the committed."

"In this country, one-third of the voters are Republican, one-third are Democrats—and one-third just don't give a damn."

SOME 180 PLYMOUTH and Northville area Republicans paid $6 apiece (three-fourths for the dinner, one-fourth for the party) for the roast beef dinner in the Mayflower Meeting House.

Second District Congressman Marvin Eisch, R-Ann Arbor, detained in Washington by a House vote, told the group by telephone that there is a "crisis of confidence" in the Johnson Administration and that the GOP is "the party that cares."

State Sen. George Kuhn, R-West Bloomfield, said he's working on a plan whereby a person may call the state capital in Lansing from anywhere in the state for the price of a local telephone call.

Kuhn said a direct-dial system would "alleviate the controversy" over legislators' wanting to have offices in their districts at public expense.

Some Mixups In '68 Fish License Stamps

Some Michigan fishermen haven't been getting what they paid for when they applied for their 1968 licenses, the State Conservation Department reports.

In apparent confusion over the new license forms, some dealers have only been handing out identification cards to fishing license buyers this year. By themselves, the "ID" cards are no more than simple pieces of paper.

Under the state's revised licensing requirements one or more appropriate stamps must be affixed to the "ID" cards to make them valid for fishing.

An exception involves senior residents 65 years and older who need a separate license for all types of fishing. They are not required to buy stamps for trout fishing.

state chairman in the absence of Mrs. Ely Peterson, listed national problems as the war in Vietnam, a near-war in Korea, crime in the streets and the balance of payments, concluding: "Lyndon Johnson has had five years to solve these problems, and they've become worse."
