Walker Whiteside in "The LADIES SERVE

When Menyhert Lengyel wrote his great play "The Typhoon," which comes to the Garrick Theatre all next week commencing tre an next week commencing Monday evening with matinees on Christmas day and Saturday, there was no way in which it could be copyrighted in America.
This fact does not influence Walker Whiteside, however, for not only does he pay a handsome royalty to the translators, but to the author as well. This explains why Mr. Whiteside may prevent others from using his particular version of the play, but fortunately no occasion has arisen, for the reason that no other actor in America has cared to was also the means of introducing undertake the difficult role of Dr Moore of the Church of Our Tokeramo, which Mr. Whiteside Father to the Farmington people
